WALTER KING'S BOOK ON HAMLET PUBLISHED

MISSOULA--

"Hamlet's Search for Meaning," a book by Walter N. King, professor of English at the University of Montana, has been published by the University of Georgia Press, Athens. ($17.50 cloth binding)

Shakespearean scholar David Bevington, professor of English at the University of Chicago, calls King's book a major study of Hamlet.

According to Bevington, the book "draws together a Christian interpretation with solid work in the vein of (Eric) Erikson and (Viktor) Frankl; the combined focus produces something that is new and convincing."

King, who grew up in Missoula, has been a member of the UM faculty since 1955. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from the UM and Ph.D. from Yale University.
