ARLEE ARTIST EXHIBITS WATERCOLORS AT UM

A collection of watercolor paintings by Arlee artist Karl Stein will be on exhibit at the University of Montana July 6-17.

The exhibit, titled "Light Slices," will open with a public reception at 7 p.m. Tuesday, July 6, in the University Center second-floor gallery. Refreshments will be provided.

In this collection, Stein's paintings make natural images abstract by juxtaposition and duplication. Stein, a 1975 UM graduate in art, has had many exhibits throughout western Montana and Washington. He originally is from San Anselmo, Calif.

Regular hours in the UC Gallery are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays.
