A FEW OPENINGS LEFT IN UM'S SUMMER MUSIC CAMPS

MISSOULA--

There are a limited number of vacancies in two high school music camps being offered by the University of Montana Music Department, department chairman Donald Simmons announced.

The Big Sky Music Camp will be held July 18-24 at the Methodist Church Camp on Flathead Lake. UM faculty will give woodwind, brass, string, percussion and voice instruction. Camp members will have a chance to participate in small ensembles- including a jazz ensemble-, master classes, musical theater instruction, choir and band.

Dartanyan Brown and Marcia Miget, UM artists-in-residence and participants in the Montana Arts Council's Artists-in-Schools program, will serve as guest faculty and work with both vocal and instrumental ensembles.

The Big Sky Piano Camp will also take place July 18-24 on the University of Montana campus. Master classes, semi-private lessons, ensemble coaching, sightreading instruction, lectures and special interest lessons will be offered by the UM piano faculty.

Both camps require a $60 registration fee and $90 for room and board.

Students can still register by calling the UM music department, at 243-6880.
