Course Overview

BGEN 105 Introduction to Business is a freshman level 3 credit hour course offered in the College of Business to both majors and non-majors and is designed to provide a broad overview of business. The course is designed to be consistent with the University of Montana College of Business’s Mission and Assessment and Assurance of Learning Standards. BGEN 105 is also eligible for University of Montana Perspectives Credit- Perspective 4- Social Sciences (S). There are no prerequisites for this course. This course is normally open to Freshmen/Sophomores. Special override is needed for Juniors/Seniors.
UM Equal Access Policy Statement
The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with Disability Services, please contact Disability Services in Lommasson Center 154 or 406.243.2243. I will work with you and Disability Services to provide an appropriate modification.

Academic Misconduct Statement
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. The University of Montana Student Conduct Code specifies definitions and adjudication processes for academic misconduct and states, “Students at the University of Montana are expected to practice academic honesty at all times.”

(Section V.A., available at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php ). All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar the Student Conduct Code.

College of Business Code of Professional Conduct
See this information at: http://www.business.umt.edu/ethics/professional-conduct-code.php.

Mission Statement and Assurance of Learning
The University of Montana’s College of Business enhances lives and benefits society by providing a world-class business education in a supportive, collegial environment.

We accomplish this mission by acting on our shared core values of creating significant experiences, building relationships, teaching and researching relevant topics, behaving ethically, and inspiring individuals to thrive.

As part of our assessment process and assurance-of-learning standards, the School of Business Administration has adopted the following learning goals for our undergraduate students:

Learning Goal 1: COB graduates will possess fundamental business knowledge.
Learning Goal 2: COB graduates will be able to integrate business knowledge.
Learning Goal 3: COB graduates will be effective communicators.
Learning Goal 4: COB graduates will possess problem solving skills.
Learning Goal 5: COB graduates will have an ethical awareness.
Learning Goal 6: COB graduates will be proficient users of technology.
Learning Goal 7: COB graduates will understand the global business environment in which they operate.
Course Description
This course will cover through lecture, readings, use of data sets, business simulations, guest presentations, interactive classroom student involvement, and student presentation the:

- nature of the business enterprise;
- business as a social institution;
- evolution of business in the U.S.;
- impact of the development of technology, and the Internet on business theory;
- theory behind and description of newly evolving technology based social networking, and peer to peer interactions, and the implications for business and society;
- comparative business systems of different world economies;
- role of business in society;
- economic theory and how it impacts business processes in the U.S. and abroad;
- environmental and global challenges facing business;
- current business management practices and issues;
- legal and ethical framework and issues that face businesses;
- application of business principles to non-profits;
- business decision making and problem solving under conditions of uncertainty;
- career strategies and opportunities in business.

Course Learning Goals

- Identify and discuss the stakeholders of business and the components of the business environment including social, legal, economic, technological, governmental, ethical and international influences;
- Define and explain the functions and features of the core components of a business enterprise including accounting, finance, law, operations, human resources, information technology and marketing;
- Demonstrate a working knowledge and vocabulary of basic business terms, concepts, and practices;
- Demonstrate effective business communication, team, problem solving, critical thinking, analysis and learning skills;
- Identify and assess academic and career opportunities related to business.

Required Course Materials

- Use RedShelf (on your Moodle course page) to Register for MyBizLab (Required) (Registration instructions discussed in class and posted on Moodle.) You are required to obtain access to MyBizLab published by Pearson. Online access to MyBizLab is a mandatory part of this course. Without access to this online resource, it is impossible to participate in, or pass, this course. Use the RedShelf link on your Moodle course page to purchase access to this course. Your business services account will be charged for the Access Code needed to access Pearson’s MyBizLab.
IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT MYBIZLAB: I will walk you through signing up for MyBizLab using RedShelf and obtaining your Access Code and Course ID in class and will also post instructions on Moodle. DO NOT SIGN UP FOR MYBIZLAB UNTIL I HAVE COVERED THIS IN CLASS. Once successfully logged into MyBizLab, you will be given the option of purchasing a hard copy of the textbook. The hard copy text is not necessary, because the text is available as an etext through your MyBizLab subscription. However, depending on your preferences, you may want to purchase a hard copy and you do that on the MyBizLab website.

UM Email Rules
Based on University of Montana policy, students must use their GrizMail accounts (netid@grizmail.umt.edu or fname.lname@umontana.edu) to communicate with me or my assistants. The umontana address is automatically forwarded to the GrizMail address. (Because of this university policy, we cannot respond to other emails sent by you. For instance, if you send us an email using hotmail or gmail, we will respond by asking you to resend your email via your umontana account.)

Moodle Course Management System
In order to receive your exam scores and Moodle-based assignments and assignment scores, and critical course information (assignments, announcements, current lecture slides etc.), attendance and class participation information, you must access your Moodle course management site. You should get into the habit of checking your course Moodle before each class and between classes on a regular basis. Get logged into Moodle no later than the first week of classes. However, you are responsible for all of the assignments and quizzes (and scores) that must be completed in MyBizLab through Pearson’s MyBizLab website. Thus, you need to check both Moodle and Pearson to stay up with your course requirements.

Problems With Moodle? Talk to the Student Lab monitors in the Gallagher Business Building (Computer Lab on the 2nd floor).

MyBizLab (Pearson): MyBizLab provides access to the electronic e-text, which you must have access to so that you can do you etext chapter readings. Additionally, MyBizLab contains assignments, short quizzes, and exercises that must be completed by specified due dates. The MyBizLab assignments are worth a possible 50% of your total course grade.

In-class Participation: Your class attendance and participation is crucial to your success in this course. Attendance taking will begin week 3. In-class involvement, participation, cooperation, and attendance is worth a possible 10% of your total course grade.
Discussion Forum Questions and Speaker Questions
I will post Discussion Questions in Pearson. The Discussion Questions will be located right below the Assignments link (left menu item in Pearson). You will be required to respond to these questions and post responses to two of your classmates’ responses. You may also be asked to turn in speaker questions for guest speakers. Your Discussion Forum assignments and Guest Speaker questions are together worth a possible 10% of your final letter grade.

Exams
Three examinations will be given. (There is no final exam in this course.) Each exam will be worth a possible 100 points (which represents 10% of your final letter grade, for each exam). The exams will not be cumulative. The examinations may cover lectures, guest presentations, class discussions, the e-text, videos, Current Business Issues reading assignments, MyBizLab assignments, and any handouts. Any of the three exams missed during the semester may be made up on Monday, Dec. 10th, at 12:00 (noon) in GBB 106. No need to let us know that you missed an exam- just show up and we will have a makeup exam available for you.

- Exam # 1: Wednesday, Sept. 26th
- Exam # 2: Monday, October 29th
- Exam # 3: Wednesday, Dec. 5th (Last day of class.)

We have no final exam in this course. Exam 3 is given on the last day of regular classes (Wednesday, Dec. 5th). We do offer makeup exams (see below).

Makeup Exams: Makeup exams (Exam 1, and/or Exam 2, and/or Exam 3) will be given for any missed exams (Exams 1, 2, and/or 3) during Finals Week on Monday, Dec. 10th at 12:00 (noon) in GBB 106. – please be prompt!

Bonus Points Opportunity: You will also be given the opportunity to read and write about additional articles dealing with issues or topics presented in class (such as the “triple bottom line” bonus assignment posted on Moodle) and/or do supplemental MyBizLab assignments in order to earn bonus points. These opportunities will be announced in class and posted on Moodle. These additional opportunities are available for up to an extra 5% towards your final letter grade.
Do not ask for any additional makeup or bonus points opportunities in addition to what I will assign.

Official Absences
Official absences will be excused for missed assignment hand in dates, in-class participation, exams, and other required course activity. Please email Kristina (and copy me on the email), with your University recognized “Official Excuse” as soon as possible after the missed event in order to receive an extension or credit, where appropriate. (See Late Work notice below.)
Late Work Policy and Notice
Late work will only be accepted if turned in within 2 weeks of its due date and your late work grade will be 50% of your assignment grade had you turned it in on time. An exception will be made for Official Excuses (see above section).

Bonus Activities: Additional Readings/Assignments 5% of final letter grade

Final Letter Grade
Your final course letter grade (A, B, C, D, F) will be determined by applying the following: (90% points or more = A) (80%-89% = B) (70%-79% = C) (60%-69% = D) (59% or less = F). I Do Not use plus or minus letter grade scoring. In other words, your final letter grade will be an A, B, C, D, F. I will not assign A+ or A-, B+, B-, etc.

Grading Mode
This course is offered ONLY for a Traditional Letter Grade. It is NOT offered on a Pass/Fail basis.

Posting Grades
Your Exam 1, Exam 2, and Exam 3 scores will be posted on Moodle as SOON AS IS POSSIBLE. WE WILL ATTEMPT TO HAVE YOUR EXAM SCORES POSTED BY 5 PM OF THE DAY FOLLOWING THE EXAM. Any questions regarding when items will be posted to Moodle or potential posting or MyBusLawLab grading errors should first be directed to my grading assistant.

Important Note about Classroom Behavior
Students must sit towards the front of the lecture hall before filling up the seats in the back of the room. Texting, using your laptops or phones to surf Facebook/social media or the Internet, video gaming, etc. will not be tolerated in the classroom. Please do not use your devices during class unless you are taking notes on them. (IF YOU ARE TAKING NOTES ON YOUR DEVICE, YOU MUST SIT WITHIN THE FIRST 4 ROWS OF FRONT OF THE LECTURE ROOM.) If called out in class for violating the Classroom Behavior policy, you will be reported as absent and will be asked to leave the class. Your instructor and guest speakers commit time, travel and energy to teach and they should be accorded due respect. If a second violation occurs, you will be asked to leave class an automatically assigned a one letter grade penalty. Subsequent infractions will result in class suspension and a failing grade.
