SPECIAL FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROGRAM FOR HIGH SCHOOLS AT UM MAY 5-6

MISSOULA--

Montana high school teachers and students of foreign languages are invited to "Foreign Language Days" at the University of Montana May 5 and 6.

The program is designed to provide information and stimulate interest in the study of foreign languages in the state.

Activities for the program include a French play, ethnic dancing and singing, films, classes and tours. The UM International Week, a program conducted by foreign students attending the University, also will have cultural activities open to the public, including an international food and crafts bazaar.

Housing and meals may be arranged at the University. Cost for students will be $18, and the cost for teachers will be $9 or $11, depending on single or double occupancy room.

Foreign Language Days is sponsored by the UM Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. For reservations and more information, interested persons should write the department at the University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812, or call (406) 243-2401.
