SHORT COURSES, WORKSHOPS ON
UM SUMMER SCHEDULE

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana summer pre-session will run June 13-17, followed by regular four- and eight-week sessions starting June 20.

In addition, short courses are slated in health and physical education; home economics; communication sciences and disorders; and national social and economic problems.

The agenda includes a three-day forum for counselors and others in the helping professions, three-day workshops in school facilities planning and school law, and a series of one- and two-week computer-in-education workshops for teachers.

A non-credit summer program in improving college skills in reading and mathematics will be available.

A one-week French Immersion Workshop, staffed entirely by native speakers, will be in session Aug. 14-20 at Flathead Lake.

A bulletin containing information about UM summer offerings is available from Summer Programs, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; (406) 243-2900.
