COMMENCEMENT SCHEDULED JUNE 12 FOR UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA CLASS OF 1983

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana will hold commencement exercises for spring-quarter degree candidates and recipients of the preceding three quarters Sunday, June 12, at 2 p.m. in Harry Adams Field House.

Degrees represented are 27 associate arts, 1,391 bachelors, 360 masters and 101 doctors, including 78 J.D. degrees to be awarded to law graduates.

The University will confer honorary doctorates upon Frederic Gordon Renner, Paradise, Ariz., and Harold G. Stearns, Helena.

Renner is a noted range management specialist and an authority on Montana artist Charles M. Russell. His Russell collection is considered the largest in private ownership. Renner was born in Great Falls.

Stearns, an effective advocate for education, has written extensively on Montana history and is a past president of the Montana Historical Society. He was editor and publisher of the Harlowton Times and Ryegate Clarion from 1940 to 1973, and he has worked for wire services and other newspapers.
