CUTLINE

#83122-7

ON SCHEDULE--Rapidly taking shape at the University of Montana, Missoula, is the $8.6 million building to house performance and instructional programs of the Schools of Fine Arts and Journalism. The multilevel structure, containing 66,500 square feet of space, is going up just east of the UM Law Building in the block bounded by Eddy, Van Buren, Sixth and Maurice. It will bring under one roof performing arts and radio-television facilities now scattered around the campus. Ground was broken Oct. 15, 1982, for the building, which is scheduled for occupancy fall quarter 1984.
