PHOTOS FOR STORY ON CHEERFUL GIVERS

CUTLINE #1

The roof of the nearly completed Forestry Center at the University of Montana Lubrecht Experimental Forest covers 7,000 square feet of space devoted to laboratories and other facilities. Part of the structure is built below ground level to make it more energy efficient. No tax money was used to build the $683,000 center. (UM/Maryan Morin)

CUTLINE #2 (vertical and horizontal photos enclosed for your choice)

The $8.6 million Performing Arts/Radio Television Center under construction at the University of Montana will be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1984. The multilevel structure contains 66,500 square feet of space that will accommodate programs of the Schools of Fine Arts and Journalism. The Montana Legislature appropriated $7.5 million for the building, and the rest of the money for construction was donated by private business and individuals. (UM/Maryan Morin)

NOTE: The high-rise building behind the Performing Arts/Radio-TV Center is Aber Hall, a dormitory.
