PARIS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

MISSOULA--

Robert Camp, Youngstown, Ohio, and Jeff Hunter, Arthur, Ill., are the 1983 recipients of the Candice Paris memorial scholarship. Each received $700.

The scholarship was established in 1979 in memory of Candice Paris, who was a music student at the University of Montana during the early 1970s. The scholarship is currently awarded to UM graduate students in music.

Camp graduated from Boardman High, Youngstown, in 1974. He plays the string bass in the UM Chamber Orchestra and the Missoula Symphony Orchestra. He plans to use this experience as a freelance bassist.

Camp is the son of Mrs. Jeanette Camp of Youngstown.

Hunter graduated from Arthur High in 1976. He majors in music composition.

Hunter, percussion coordinator for the UM Marching Band, is a tympanist for the Missoula Symphony Orchestra and is a teaching assistant in percussion. He plans to use his musical education to become a music instructor on the college level.

Hunter is the son of Mary Rita Hunter of Arthur, Ill., and Joe Hunter of Arcola, Ill.
