STUDENT PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT METHODS AND GRADING PROCEDURES:

Production and Testing

1) Students will be required to demonstrate daily production assignments requiring pre-planning of methodology and recipes. Recipes must be read and understood by the student before attending class. Students will be evaluated on teamwork, professionalism, mise en place, production guide/timelines, plating diagrams, quality of finished product, sanitation and organizational skills.

2) All assignments, projects and tests will be assigned point values. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain quiz and production competency scores. Weekly tests will be tabulated and returned to the student for review in a timely fashion (usually within one day). Students are strongly encouraged to review their scores and grade sheets often. They can be reviewed by appointment during office hours.

3) The quiz schedule and dates are included in the weekly schedule posted in introductory content area of Moodle shell. Quizzes will be written and given during class time. Grading will take place immediately after the quiz is complete.

NO MAKE-UP QUIZZES!

4) It will be the student’s responsibility to complete the assigned competencies. Upon completion, it will be the student’s responsibility to have Chef Campbell critique the assignment and give feedback to the student on what can be improved, quality standards, etc. At that point, it will be the student’s responsibility to type the feedback and submit the document in their notebook at the end of the semester.
Total points earned will be divided by points possible, and a letter grade will be assigned based on the following:

Grading Scale:
- 90 - 100 A
- 80 - 89 B
- 70 - 79 C
- 60 - 69 D

Evaluation Criteria:
- Participation/Sanitation 25 percent
- Quizzes 25 percent
- Practical Exams 30 percent
- Project 10 percent
- Notebook 10 percent

Total: 100 pts

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Attendance will be taken. Each unexcused missed class will result in a 5-point deduction from final points accumulated. Late students, or students that leave class early will result in a 3-point deduction from final points accumulated. No make-up is allowed for lab participation. If students are absent for any reason, they will be accountable for any information disseminated and be held responsible for class notes, announcements of tests, and assignments.

PARTICIPATION:

Students must demonstrate teamwork as consistent with industry. This is necessary as students contribute to the learning environment and become active learners by attending class and participating. Students who read text assignments prior to class will be equipped to participate and will obtain the most from this course. Participation points will be granted or denied depending on how the student exhibits enthusiasm, interest, teamwork, organization, and preparedness.
POINT BREAKDOWN FOR DAILY PARTICIPATION/PRODUCTION:

1 point – Production Schedules
1 point – Full Uniform
1 point – Professionalism/Participation
1 point – MEP lists/Recipes/Plating Diagrams
1 point – Sanitation
TOTAL Daily points – 5

Students who do not arrive to class with the proper paperwork daily will be sent home resulting in a 5 point deduction from their Participation/Production Grade for each day. For each day a student needs to take class time to finish the daily paperwork, a 3 point deduction will be taken for being late.

BREAKS:

One (1) each- ten (10) minute break per five (5) hour laboratory period, will be granted at the discretion of Chef Campbell and permission to leave the kitchen is required. This does not include lavatory visits.

DUE DATES:

To receive full credit, assignments must be submitted by the stated due dates. Late assignments will be not be accepted.

TESTS:

Tests will be given during the semester as announced. A score of zero will be averaged into grade determination for any missed test. NO MAKE-UP TESTS OR PRACTICAL EXAMS!

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

CULINARIAN CODE:
All students are expected to uphold all teachings of the American Culinary Federation’s Culinarian Code:

As a proud member of the American Culinary Federation, I pledge to share my professional knowledge and skill with all culinarians. I will place honor, fairness, cooperation and consideration first when dealing with my colleagues. I will keep all comments professional and respectful when dealing with my colleagues. I will protect all members from the use of unfair means, unnecessary risks and unethical behavior when used against them for another’s personal gain. I will support the success, growth, and future of my colleagues and this great federation.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:
SUPPLIES: Knife kit, Camera

CELL PHONE POLICY: Cell phones are allowed in class only as a means to record photos for the final notebook. Text messaging during class or lab is not allowed. Unexcused departures from the kitchen to use cell phones will be treated as an unexcused absence and participation points will be deducted. It is advisable to direct emergency (only) phone messages to the kitchen phone (243-7815).

UNIFORM POLICY: Students are to be in full professional uniform before and during all classroom and lab periods. Uniform is to consist of hounds tooth chef pants, clean and pressed full sleeve student chef’s coat with white undershirt, neckerchief, black or white socks only (not no show), and clean black shoes with covered toe and closed back (preferably clog style).

MEAL POLICY: It is the students’ responsibility to read and understand the meal policy. Abuse of the meal policy will be reflected on the grade sheet.
