- ✓ Prepare cooked and cold breakfast cereals
- ✓ Cook various breakfast meats
- ✓ Prepare breakfast compotes, syrups, flavored butters
- ✓ Prepare various breakfast potatoes, and starches

STUDENT PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT METHODS AND GRADING PROCEDURES: Production and Testing

- 1) Students will be required to demonstrate daily production assignments requiring pre-planning of methodology and recipes. Recipes must be read and understood by the student before attending class. Students will be evaluated on teamwork, professionalism, mise en place, production guide/timelines, plating diagrams, quality of finished product, sanitation and organizational skills.
- 2) All assignments, projects and tests will be assigned point values. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain quiz and production competency scores. Weekly tests will be tabulated and returned to the student for review in a timely fashion (usually within one day). Students are strongly encouraged to review their scores and grade sheets often. They can be reviewed by appointment during office hours.
- 3) The quiz schedule and dates are included in the weekly schedule posted in introductory content area of Moodle shell. Quizzes will be written and given during class time. Grading will take place immediately after the quiz is complete. Makeup for a missed test is not offered unless faculty is notified and guidelines are identified for the individual situation before each test. Students may be able to make up a missed test for emergency situations such as sickness or required work activities, but must submit documented excused absences such as a Doctor's note identifying excused dates or mandatory work related travel dates in a timely manner.
- 4) It will be the student's responsibility to complete the assigned competencies. Upon completion, it will be the student's responsibility to have the Chef critique the assignment and give feedback to the student on what can be improved, quality standards, etc. At that point, it will be the student's responsibility to type the feedback and submit the feedback to the Chef by the end of the rotation to receive a grade for the competencies.

Total points earned will be divided by points possible, and a letter grade will be assigned based on the following:

Grading Scale:

90 - 100	A
80 - 89	B
70 - 79	C
60 - 69	D

Evaluation Criteria:

Tests	30 percent
Notebook	10 percent
Final Project	10 percent
Daily Production	30 percent
Competencies	20 percent

Total: 100 pts

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

- Attendance will be taken.

- For every missed day of class, 5 points will be taken off of your final grade in addition to any points lost for class work, tests, sanitation, participation, etc.
- Due to the loss of curriculum and instruction time; if you miss 5 days or more, of any course, you will receive an incomplete (I) in the course and must take it again. Be aware that this does effect financial aid and grade point average.
- There are no acceptable excuses that will prevent the loss of points. This includes doctor's notes, police reports, deaths, extenuating circumstances, or acts of God.
- This policy is final and no exceptions will be made.
- This policy applies to the entire Culinary Arts Curriculum that begins with the CULA rubric.
- Students that leave class early will result in a 3-point deduction from final points accumulated.
- No make-up is allowed for lab participation. If students are absent for any reason, they will be accountable for any information disseminated and be held responsible for class notes, announcements of tests, and assignments.

PARTICIPATION/PRODUCTION:

Students must demonstrate teamwork as consistent with industry. This is necessary as students contribute to the learning environment and become active learners by attending class and participating. Students who read text assignments prior to class will be equipped to participate and will obtain the most from this course. Participation points will be granted or denied depending on how the student exhibits enthusiasm, interest, teamwork, organization, and preparedness.

POINT BREAKDOWN FOR DAILY PARTICIPATION/PRODUCTION:

1 point – Production Schedules
1 point – Full Uniform
1 point – Professionalism/Participation
1 point – MEP lists/Recipes/Plating Diagrams
1 point – Sanitation
TOTAL Daily points – 5

Students who do not arrive to class with the proper paperwork daily will be sent home resulting in a 5 point deduction from their Participation/Production Grade for each day. For each day a student needs to take class time to finish the daily paperwork, a 3 point deduction will be taken for being late.

BREAKS:

One (1) each- ten (10) minute break per five (5) hour laboratory period, will be granted at the discretion of Chef Siegel and permission to leave the kitchen is required. This does not include lavatory visits.

DUE DATES:

To receive full credit, assignments must be submitted by the stated due dates. Late assignments will be not be accepted.

TESTS:

Tests will be given during the semester as announced. Assignments for makeup tests will be made only if faculty is notified by voice mail, e-mail, or personally prior to the test. A score of zero will be averaged into grade determination for any missed test.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION:

Eligible students with disabilities will receive appropriate accommodations in this course when requested in a timely way. Please contact me after class or in my office. Please be prepared to provide a letter from your DSS Coordinator. For more information, visit the Disability Services website at <http://www.umt.edu/dss/> or call 406.243.2243 (Voice/Text) or <http://www.umt.edu/dss>.

CULINARIAN CODE:

All students are expected to uphold all teachings of the American Culinary Federation's Culinarian Code:

As a proud member of the American Culinary Federation, I pledge to share my professional knowledge and skill with all culinarians. I will place honor, fairness, cooperation and consideration first when dealing with my colleagues. I will keep all comments professional and respectful when dealing with my colleagues. I will protect all members from the use of unfair means, unnecessary risks and unethical behavior when used against them for another's personal gain. I will support the success, growth, and future of my colleagues and this great federation.
