The learning goal of this lecture course is student understanding of the major structural and legal features of American government. These characteristics are detailed on the review sheets and provide the basis of the examinations. The three examinations will use objective questions. The dates of the first two examinations will be June 2 and June 14. The final examination will cover material from the second examination to the end of the course and is scheduled for Friday, June 23. The two midterm examinations will count 66 points each and the final examination will count 68 points. Thus, a total of 200 points can be earned in the course. The course grades will be determined as follows: A=180-200; B=160-179; C=140-159 D=120-139; F=0-119. Class will not meet on Memorial Day, May 29.
