UM ARTS ENRICHMENT PROGRAM BEGINS JAN. 14

A Saturday morning arts enrichment program for persons age 3 through 16 will be offered at the University of Montana beginning Jan. 14.

The program will offer activities in all aspects of the arts, including painting, sculpture, photography, drawing, writing, music composition, creative movement and dramatic productions.

Classes will be held for eight consecutive Saturdays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the UM Fine Arts Building. The fee is 99¢ per session or $7 in advance for all eight sessions. Family rates are also available.

The program is sponsored by the UM art department and directed by Richard B. Reinholtz, associate professor of art. Instructors are students from various art methods classes.

For more information contact the UM art department, 243-4181.
