The learning goal of this lecture course is student understanding of the major structural and legal features of American Government. To achieve this goal, the course's three examinations will use objective questions. The dates of the first two examinations will be June 5 and 15. The final examination will cover material from the second examination to the end of the course and is scheduled for Friday, June 26. The midterms will count 66 points each and the final will count 68 points. Thus, a total of 200 points can be earned in the course. The course grades for Psc 100 will be determined as follows: A=180-200; B=160-179; C=140-159; D=120-139; F=0-119.
