PROMINENT POLITICAL SCIENTIST SPEAKS MARCH 4 AT UM ON THE DEPRESSION

Michael Harrington, a political scientist and author of international repute, will deliver a free public lecture on "The Legacy of the Great Depression" at the University of Montana Sunday, March 4.

Harrington's book, "The Other America," was instrumental in initiating the political awareness that led to the Kennedy and Johnson administrations' "War on Poverty" programs in the '60s.

The lecture will be at 7:30 p.m. March 4 in the UM Underground Lecture Hall. It is part of a UM course and lecture series on the Great Depression of the 1930s.

Harrington's latest book is titled "The Vast Majority: A Journey to the World's Poor." He is a political science professor at Queen's College of the City University of New York and is co-chairman of the Democratic Socialists of America Party, formerly known as the Socialist Party.

A panel discussion will follow the lecture. Moderator for the panel is Horst Jarka, UM foreign languages professor and coordinator of the lecture series. Panel members are Rudyard Goode, UM business professor; John Photiades, UM economics associate professor; and Ronald Perrin, UM political science professor.

Harrington's lecture is sponsored by the Montana Committee for the Humanities and the Associated Students of UM Programming Lecture Series.
