Course Description, Activities, and Grading

MUSI 596 is an independent study/internship in musical theatre, administered by Dr. Cody, the coordinator and academic advisor of the degree program. As a required capstone course for the MM in Musical Theatre, students consult with Dr. Cody and other directors or administrators involved, to determine the most suitable project. Once the project is determined, a schedule is devised in consultation with either Dr. Cody or the appropriate person who will be overseeing the student's work and determining the final grade. The purpose of the internship is to provide the student with professional-level experience in an aspect of musical theatre they have focused on. The project can involve an actual production of a musical (directing, producing, conducting, or performing a significant role), the creation of a musical (writing the book and/or lyrics, or composing the music), or music theatre education.

In some cases, the project will involve research and written work. In accordance with university policies, all course syllabi must contain the following:

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at www.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/Index.cfm/page/1321.
