AIM:
This course is designed to help you broaden your communication, presentation, and social skills. By studying the craft of acting you will come to develop a more articulate, responsive, and expressive identity and begin to view your everyday actions and interactions as performances. By the end of the semester, it is expected that you leave with an extended understanding of yourself and of other people and that you will have a stronger sense of public presentation skills leading to better social and professional interactions. I hope that you enjoy the experience, have fun, and make friends with your classmates.

OUTCOMES:
In this setting you will achieve:
- A demonstrated confidence in the presentation of your self—socially and professionally;
- An ability to further articulate both your personal character and the character of those you take on in dramatic performance;
- An understanding of, and appreciation for, the craft of acting, the skills that actor’s employ, and ways non-actors can also use acting skills;
- An understanding of, and respect for, performers and audiences.

CONTENT:
This course is divided into 5 sequential units.

Unit 1: CLASSICAL THEATRE: WHAT IS ACTING AND PERFORMANCE?
- An introduction to the history and theory of acting, vocabulary, and audience etiquette. You will create performances and learn how to see yourself as an actor.

Unit 2: THEATRE FOR SOCIAL CHANGE: GAINING INFORMATION FROM REHEARSAL AND PERFORMANCE
- Techniques for learning more about your world through performance. You will learn more about other people through role-play and improvisation.

Unit 3: AVANT-GARDE THEATRE: PERFORMING A CHARACTER
- Rehearsing and performing short scenes with a partner, creating new and original characters, and analysing characters and scripts. You will learn how to use the skills you have developed in the service of a role. This unit will focus on integrating vocal awareness.

Unit 4: NON-WESTERN THEATRE: DEVELOPING ACTING SKILLS
- Building skills through group exercises, including warm-ups, games, and acting exercises. You will learn how to use specific acting skills in your everyday life with a primary focus on the body.

Unit 5: IMMEDIATE THEATRE: PERSONAL PERFORMANCE
- Identifying how others perform around you and learning how to articulate your immediate thoughts and experiences through an artistic medium. You will explore contemporary techniques for generating particular qualities of personal affect in a way that can relate to a variety of people.

REQUIRED TEXT:
Campana, Jillian. ACTING SUCCESSFUL using performance skills in everyday life. Cognella

The text is also available in paperback and digitally through the publisher’s website:
universityreaders.com. That website will prompt you to create a password in the student’s store section. You will need to identity the institution (University of Montana) as well as the class (THTR 120A). The text is also available on amazon.com and barnesandnoble.com. The prices are the same at all locations. The Bookstore is definitely the easiest and most convenient way to purchase the text and costs no more than other sellers.

EVALUATION:
Participation: class projects and performances 25%
Effort/respect/attitude 25%
Writing assignments 25%
Production attendance 25%

NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED! NO EXCEPTIONS!

- Participation in Class Projects and Performances
  You will be performing on a weekly basis and will be given grades for your class work and performances in the areas of process and product. In other words, you will be graded on the finished performance and also on all of the rehearsals. Your grade in this area is not based on the natural talent you bring to the class; rather, it will be a reflection of your developed talent and the progress that you make over the course of the semester. There are several worksheets in our text that you will be asked to fill out and discuss with the groups as well; you will receive participation points for these worksheets only on the days in which we discuss said material in class. You will also be expected to participate in a final performance, scheduled on Tuesday, May 9th, 2017, at 8:00am-10:00am.

- Effort/Respect/Attitude
  Effort and respect are two very important requirements. You are expected to respond to assignments and performances with effort and enthusiasm. You are expected to show respect for yourself, your classmates, your instructor, and your classroom environment. An excellent performance hinges upon taking risks, which is impossible to do if the environment is uncomfortable or uninviting. It is expected that when you participate in classroom activities, your peers will encourage you to commit to your actions and characters without embarrassment, remorse, or caution. This class requires openness and a willingness to take risks. Once that happens, the fun begins. You will receive a weekly grade in this area.
Writing Assignments
You will write two short performance critique papers, and will be asked to participate in one moodle forum discussion, each focused on one of the three life productions you are required to attend this semester. You will also write an in depth character analysis, referred to in the text. Finally, there will also be another writing assignment, approximately ¼ of the way through the class which will be creative in nature.

Production Attendance:
Part of your grade for this class requires that you attend three of the School of Theatre & Dance’s performances this semester. Missing one production will drop your grade one full letter. Missing two productions will drop your grade two full letters. If you do not attend any of the productions, you will not be able to pass the class. In other words, production attendance is a part of this class and you will be asked to write a 2-page paper on acting for each production.

TICKETS:
The materials fee you paid when you registered for this course allows you to obtain your ticket for these shows at no additional expense. You must pick up your ticket at the UMArts Box Office, located in the lobby of the PARTV Center, in person between 12 PM and 6 PM Tuesday-Friday, and one hour before performances. You may pick up only one ticket—your own; you cannot pick up a ticket for a classmate. If you pick up your ticket to a production and wish to change performances, you will be charged a $2 exchange fee before the performance date printed on the ticket. If you come in to exchange your ticket after the performance date printed on the ticket (and therefore need a new ticket), you will be charged the full student ticket price.

When you go to the Box Office to obtain your ticket, you must present your Griz Card. Please tell the box office staff that you are a 120A student and that you are picking up your ticket. Tell them who your instructor is and what section you are in and you must identify which class you are taking.

You are in section: 04
Your instructor’s name is: Danielle Sather

Seating in the Masquer Theatre is general admission. Seating in the Montana Theatre is reserved. The fee that you have paid does not guarantee you a ticket on a particular night, nor does it guarantee that you will be able to get a ticket if the show sells out. Do not wait until the evening of the performance you plan to attend to pick up a ticket.

Required Productions (You have free tickets to these shows!)
The three productions you will be seeing this semester are:
- Thinner Than Water: February 22-26, March 1-5, 2017/ Masquer Theatre
- Noises Off: April 19-23 and 26-30, 2017/ Masquer Theatre

Suggested Production/Extra Credit
- The Madwoman of Chaillot: April 5-9, 2017 / Masquer Theatre *Special $6 ticket price
Attendance and Promptness is also considered in your final grade:
Attendance is compulsory because acting is participatory. There is no way to learn without doing, no adequate substitute for a missing partner, and no way to “make up” a missed experience. After 1 week of absences (2 classes for T/TH and 3 classes for M/W/F), your grade will begin to be effected. Generally speaking after a week of absences your grade will be lowered an increment. After 5 or more absences you will be failed. No exceptions.

Arriving late adversely affects your own learning and disrupts the learning process of your fellow students. Therefore, tardiness in excess of 10 minutes will be considered a complete absence, and every two instances of tardiness—of whatever duration—will equate to one absence. If you have excessive absences or lateness please speak to me.

POLICIES:
You are expected to abide by the following School of Theatre & Dance regulations.
- Eating, drinking, or gum chewing during the class are not permitted. Please let me know in writing if you have a medical exception to this policy. Water in a capped container is acceptable.
- No smoking in class. Ever.
- Absolutely no weapons, real or fake, are allowed in the classroom.
- Late work is not accepted; this includes late or unprepared performances.
- There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they can be physical in nature. Please proceed through class and rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others.
- Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student’s time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without the instructor’s consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student’s grade.

Movement Clothes:
Please wear clothing to class that does not restrict movement: tight-fitting and restrictive clothing and anything too revealing is not be acceptable. Hooded sweatshirts, hats, and hair that cover the face make it hard for others to see you, so remove them before work commences. Please clean your shoes appropriately before you enter the building to keep our floors as clean as possible. You may be asked to work in bare feet.

Personal Comfort:
The study of acting often requires the instructor or peers to touch each other or be in close proximity. We all have bad days when we do not want such contact. Feel free to bow out of a particular exercise if you are in pain. However, frequent sitting out is a sign that you are having a difficult time with the class material.

Cell Phones:
Please turn off your cell phone in class. My phone will be set to vibrate in case an emergency text message should be sent by the University. If your phone rings during class, please silence it as quickly as possible. Anyone caught texting in class will be immediately dismissed from class, resulting in an absence for the day.
School of Theatre & Dance Handbook:
For in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at http://www.umt.edu/umarts/theatredance/About/handbook.php.

UM Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code:
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php.

DSS:
The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with DSS, please contact DSS in Lommasson 154. I will work with you and DSS to provide an appropriate accommodation.
