(NOTE: I do not have an office for office hours, but I am available for scheduled meeting times.)

Course description and objectives: An introduction to the movement vocabulary of traditional African dance—learn specific dances (and how the rhythms drive them), songs, and a cultural/historical background, as well as getting a taste for how African music and dance have shaped modern forms. This class is suitable for all skill levels and accompanied by live drum music.

Requirements:

1. NO STREET SHOES, FOOD, DRINK, OR CELL PHONES ALLOWED IN THE DANCE STUDIOS!!!
2. To receive Expressive Arts (General Education Competency Requirement) credit for this class, a student must enroll for a traditional grade and receive a grade of “C” or higher. Students registered for Credit/No Credit option must perform at the equivalent of a “D” grade or higher to receive Credit.
3. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with DSS, please contact DSS in Lommasson 154. I will work with you and DSS to provide an appropriate accommodation. For more information, please consult <http://life.umt.edu/dss/>.
4. Attendance (see attendance policy below)
5. Written assignments (see over)
6. Group project for the Festival of Remembrance (I will give you a separate hand-out for that)
7. Attend War/Dance movie at Roxy on Mon., Sep.17 at 7pm, FREE (I have already reserved you a ticket!)

Grading Policy:

Grading in dance is not quantifiable, and there is not a point breakdown, but there are some general guidelines. To receive an “A” you must:

- *show aptitude for dance technique and musicality
 - *attend class and fulfill written requirements
 - *complete all assignments on time
 - *have an energetic, attentive attitude
 - *progress over the semester
- * You will receive an “F” for lack of attendance and/or critiques (see below). You may receive an “incomplete” (I) only if you have exceptional circumstances that you have discussed with the instructor.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance is vital in the field of dance. Learning to dance requires that your body DO IT. You gain flexibility and strength, take in the music and hear how the rhythms fit with the dance, and build on a core of movement when you come to class. Therefore it is important that you NOT MISS CLASS and I expect you there EVERY time ON TIME (if you are consistently tardy, I will start docking your grade)! You will be given two free absences, for unpredictable circumstances, etc. In addition, you may also make up two classes by taking an additional African/African-based class or by observing or participating in another dance class and writing one page about your experience. When you submit your make-up papers, include the date of the class that you are making up near the top with your name and ID. After you have used your two absences and two make-ups, you will be docked 1/3 of a grade (e.g. from B+ to B) for every following absence.

Written Assignments (required):

- 1. Artist statement(s) for Festival of Remembrance group project (I will give you a separate hand-out), there will be some performative aspect of this TBA. Procession is Friday, November 2.
- 2. Three critiques of dance performances--the department and I require you attend the following:
 - A. UM Dancers on Location: A Site Specific Dance Concert, September 29 (Sat) OR September 30 (Sun) @12pm starts at the Mansfield Library Mall. FREE!
 - B. Dance Up Close, November 1-3 (Thur-Sat), @7:30p (plus 2p matinee on November 3), Masquer Theatre, tickets can be purchased at the Box Office in the PARTV lobby (don't delay getting tics!)
 - C. Fall Studio Works, December 7 (Fri) at 7:30pm; Open Space, tickets $5 at the door.

In addition to your personal AND group artist statement for the Festival of Remembrance group project, you are required to turn in a written critique of three separate performances. Take notes at the events you attend/participate in so when you write you can give specific examples to support your critique. Critiques must be turned in on the Monday that follows one week after the event you are writing about (example: you attend Dancers on Location on Sep. 29, then you must turn in critique on Oct. 8). Your grade will be lowered by 1/3 of a grade for every critique you do not hand in. You will be docked 1/3 of a grade if two or more assignments are turned in late. Outside sources of information may be added to your critique, AS LONG AS THEY ARE PROPERLY REFERENCED and from a "reputable" source. Critiques should be well written and not more than two pages using standard font and format (please use single or 1.5 space to save paper), and should include the following:

1. Which pieces did you feel strongly about (loved, disliked, confused, etc.) and why?
2. Your reaction to the performances of the dancers: expression and technique
3. Your opinion on the theatrical elements: costumes, lighting, sets, and sound score AND did they work with the choreography?
4. On the choreography of each piece (address the following questions, if applicable):
 - a. What was the theme or movement idea?
 - b. What was the style of dance and how does it work with the theme?
 - c. How did the movement or progression of the piece lend itself to your reaction to it?

NO street shoes are allowed in the dance studio at any time, even carried in-hand. Anyone entering the studio must remove their street shoes BEFORE entering and leave them outside the studio. The only shoes permitted in studios are those that have been purchased for the exclusive use of dance in dance studios (with the exclusion of tap shoes, hard-shoe clogs, and flamenco shoes.).

NOTE: Locker rentals are available for any student. The School of Theatre & Dance recommends that students do not leave personal belongings unattended in the dressing rooms, hallways, dance studios, or theatres as thefts frequently occur. Lockers may be rented for $10/one semester or $15/two semesters through Administrative Associate III Erin McDaniel (erin.mcdaniel@umontana.edu; PARTV 196).

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code: All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at <http://www.umt.edu/student-affairs/dean-of-students/default.php>.

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the Department of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at <http://www.umt.edu/umarts/theatredance/About/handbook.php>.

There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student's time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student's grade.

"Walk, hell—I gotta dance!"
