QUIET SUNDAY STEPS, resting from people . . . two on a walk; the sunny days with no general purpose . . . the Law building calls a moratorium on study and enjoys the sun.

FOREWORD

A YEARBOOK . . . presumptuous title . . . as if these 304 pages could portray the year for some 3,400 individuals.

A theme . . . product of a moment's thought . . . a year's effort to make the contents fall into the grooves of that momentary fancy.

. . . And this is the result . . . one constructed around the other, a yearbook based on a cross-walks, minimized, edited, condensed . . . merely a cross-walks glimpse of a year's existence upon a campus which in its entirety is termed Montana State University. A versatile existence . . . pictured through our eyes as three varieties of walks might be patterned.

To the straight and narrow ways, we designated the channeled parts of university life: the administration, both university and student, some 200 faculty members, the great 3,400. We cleared the by-paths for the extra-curricularites, the workers in words, the musicians, the followers of university drama, the gregarious belongers of clubs, those chosen few who fill the honoraries' quotas, and those athletes who tread upon the rougher by-paths.

We routed the Greeks and dorm dwellers along remembered walks . . . and here also, those time-honored traditions and special days found their way.

Hopefully constructed to present a record of the year . . . here is another Sentinel.

It has been compiled and published for those people who walk upon this campus . . . and to each of them . . . it is respectfully dedicated.
