Montana's All-Skyliner, Dapper Dan Balko, fires a bucket against two Utah State defenders. The Grizzly basketballers, despite a poor start, finished fifth in the rugged Skyline league with a 7-7 record.

Montana Athletic Director Jiggs Dahlberg passes out a winning medal to Grizzly freestyler Bob McKinnon. McKinnon, Doug James, Wayne Veeneman and Ivan Jacobsen splashed to a new Skyline record in the medley relay.

Montana center Mary Suttle swishes a hook shot in the Grizzly-Colorado State encounter in Missoula. Silvertips won, 49-43.

Montana coach Ray Jenkins, in ten-gallon hat, surveys his players just before kickoff time. Hard-working Jenkins was rewarded with a 9-10 record in his first season as a head mentor, but Grizzly fans were impressed with his coaching.

Balko, who led Montana scorers with 390 points last season, drives for the bucket against Jerry Cole of Denver.

Grizzly trackster Mike Granbois displays a big smile after receiving the Grizzly Cup, awarded yearly by Morris McCollum to the MSU athlete who is outstanding in leadership, scholarship, and contributions to the University. Granbois, a service veteran and family man, was one of the best quarter-milers in Grizzly history during his career.

All-American Stan Renning, left, is interviewed by former publicist J. D. Coleman after the first of Stan the Ram's nine All-America awards was announced. Renning, during his three-year career at Montana, made 339 tackles and 131 assists in 24 games, won Lineman of the Game honors in 18 of 22 games in which votes were taken, and was a unanimous All-Skyline guard two seasons in a row. The Ram also won the Most Valuable Grizzly trophy three seasons straight.

The Ram in action! Stan Renning brings down a Utah State ball carrier for a three-yard loss in the Grizzly-Aggie Homecoming game in Missoula.

STAN THE RAM -- GREATEST GRIZZLY IN HISTORY

— says BOB GILLULY

Well, at least the best Grizzly lineman since John Christian Bentz won All-America honors for the Silvertips way back in 1917—that's the unanimous opinion of Renning offered by several veteran

MSU observers.

Stan won a total of nine different All-American honors during his career. In the fall of 1958, he won an Associated Press third team selection, making him the most honored Montana lineman in the past 40 seasons.

In his career Renning was mainly noted for his great defensive work, but the 200-pound guard also was at his best leading the blocking on Grizzly rushing plays. All in all, it was a tremendous three-season career at Montana for Stan the Ram.

STAN RENNING

Pileup. An unidentified Grizzly ball carrier hammers through Brigham Young's tough line for a short gain.

Dornblaser Field, dedicated to Paul Dornblaser, who was killed in the first World War, waits in the early fall sun for school to start. The grass is unmarred, the stands empty as seen from Mt. Sentinel.

BASKETBALL

Despite a slow start, Montana's cage Grizzlies came through with another fine season under the guidance of veteran mentor Frosty Cox. The Grizzlies relied on sophomores to a large extent early in the season, and lost six in a row before hitting the winning trail. With the yearlings being supplemented by steady work on the part of three seniors, the Montanans averaged 78 points a game over the last half of the season and ended up with an even 7-7 Skyline record.

Three Grizzlies—Terry Serenar, Darrol Dunham and Duane Ruegsegger, fight for a rebound as the Grizzlies battle Utah State.

Montana's senior captain, Darrol Dunham, controls the ball during action in the MSU-Utah State game in Missoula. Dunham was the leading Grizzly rebounder during the season and also contributed good scoring punch.

Montana's John Lands, a capable cager as well as an All-Skyline footballer, fires a shot against the Wyoming Cowboys.

HARDWOOD ACTION

A driving style of offense highlighted the Montana season, but mentor Forrest Cox also was a stickler for defense. The Montana squad has led the Skyline in defensive play for the past three seasons.

Darrol Dunham drives for the basket against Colorado State.

TRACK

Grizzly tracksters, under the astute leadership of Harry Adams, rose to a fourth-place finish in the Skyline.

Grizzly sprinters move into their starting blocks during a practice session.

Harry Adams, the veteran mentor who has guided Grizzly cindermen since 1933, is generally regarded as the best track coach in the Skyline. The affable coach is never blessed with a great amount of material, but he always gets topnotch performances from his men.

Grizzly publicist Bob Gilluly interviews Adams on track prospects.

Montana hurdler Hank Mohland tops the timbers on his way to victory in the high hurdles event against Brigham Young University. Mohland, jokingly referred to as the "balddest hurdler in the west," was co-captain of the Grizzly squad and ranked as one of the best in the Skyline.

Montana's Skyline championship relay team included Mike Granbois, Ken Nelson, Paul Sullivan and Frank Damaskos. The Grizzly speedsters have won this Skyline event two seasons in a row.

Weightman Ken Wersland holds the University shot put record and also is a strong discus performer.

Broad jumper John Lands strains as he leaps in a match against Utah State. The versatile Lands added a third letter—in track—to his already impressive football and basketball scrapbook.

Although it appears that the Brigham Young runner (right) has the lead, Montana's Ken Nelson (left center) outran his foe to give the Grizzlies a relay win against the Brigs.

Mike Granbois crosses the finish line with another 449 victory.

Grizzly tracksters set one new MSU record in 1959, and came close to cracking several others. Miller Mike Johnston was timed in 4:16.3 to set a new Grizzly mile mark.

Pole vaulter Chuck Nelson tops the bar at 12 feet. Just a freshman, Nelson gave promise of being one of Montana's better pole vaulters.

SWIMMING

Grizzly swimmers, becoming stronger every season under the guidance of energetic Bud Wallace, splashed to a strong fourth-place finish in the Skyline.

Swimmers lean forward just before a Skyline championship race in MSU's new pool.

Montana's record shattering medley relay team included Doug James, Ivan Jacobsen, Bob McKinnon and Wayne Veeneman. The four Grizzly splashers broke the former medley record by nearly six seconds in the most exciting race of the Skyline finals in Missoula.

Montana's Jacobsen, left, stands at the head of the line after setting a new Skyline butterfly record.

BASEBALL

Pitcher-outfielder Larry Schulz was the best Grizzly chucker during the season, and that was one of the surprising things about the gummy Grizzly thrower. Schulz was in a near-fatal auto wreck two years ago, and doctors felt that Larry would never play baseball again. But Schulz, despite, a game leg, came back strong in his senior season.

Terrible Terry Srenar led Grizzly hitters with a .372 mark and was named an All-Skyline first baseman.

BOWLING

Montana State University Bowlers competed with MSC three times and lost all three, but in the State Bowling Tournament they won first place.

Competing were: MSU, MSC, School of Mines, College of Great Falls, Carroll, Eastern College of Education.

At Eugene, Oregon at the Northwest Collegiate Tournament MSU won

8th place out of 18 entered.

Only the two highest were invited to the National Intercollegiate Tournament and although Fred Chapman had a very high record, MSU failed to get an invitation. We lost two to Idaho in the Airmail Tournament.

VARSITY TENNIS

Freshman Mike Hogarty rifles a serve in a Grizzly match against Utah State. Despite a last-place finish in the Skyline, the Grizzly netters showed improvement over the previous season. Lettermen were Hogarty, coach John Love, Nick Darling, Bob Nearents and Steve Kirk.

SOCCER

Non-Varsity Soccer was organized in the late spring.

Frank Tetrault was Montana's varsity star in riflery. His top scoring qualified him to compete in the Pan American games.

RIFLERY

Montana made admirable progress in a field where Skyline schools are even offering scholarships. Associated with the ROTC Department, the team picked up wins at an Idaho tourney and against Utah State.

GOLF

With five returning lettermen, coach Chinske was looking forward to success in 1959. The team made a strong showing, but was not able to rise above eighth place in the conference.

Golf Captain Joe Boboth surveys the new university golf course hoping that the expanded facilities will help build a winning team.

SKIING

The skiing year did not bring MSU any great triumphs. The hard working team coached by Bob Steele met skiers at a series of meets around the West. Team mainstays were Captain John Manz and slalom star Rudy Ruana.

There is no doubt that western Montana is a fine training ground for skiers. The team got practice once a week at either Diamond or TV Mountains.

The Bruins, pictured above, are Jerry Sinclair, Tom Uphill, Malcolm Broatch, Rod Kempel, Sandy Stewart, Al Craig, Bill Meinychuk, Lee Prodor, Marv Tiller, Leo Meadson, Ron Smith,

HOCKEY

The Bruins, under coach Sam Elfanson, are the first formal hockey team in the history of the university. At present, they are Montana's Intercollegiate Hockey Champions because of their victories over MSC and Montana Mines. It should be noted that the majority of them hail from Canada and it was they who provided the spark for organization of the squad.

There are many short stops like this because the MSU skating rink is only one-half the size of a regulation hockey rink.

Work-outs began in November for the rugged Bruins. Good conditioning and coordination of the line are important to these puck-men.

The year began with touch football and the Clover Bowl was alive with fast plays and maneuvers as the living groups stadium for first place.
