1952

UTAH STATE 7—MONTANA 0

Under the illuminating lights of Dornblazer field, the first Skyline Conference contest of the 1952 football season was played between Utah State and the University of Montana. Although school's start was scheduled a week later, many MSU students attended the game to see the Grizzlies actually better Utah State in total yards 173-166 and in first downs 10-8 only to lose in the all important points' department 0-7. While the first half was dominated by Montana, the second was played on more even terms except for the Utah State march in the third period that was culminated by Del Ray Campbell's touchdown. The line play of Jim Murray and the punting of Bud Bellis greatly improved the Montana cause as they did throughout the season.

WYOMING 14—MONTANA 0

The University of Wyoming was Montana's next obstacle. The Grizzlies traveled east to Laramie to (in the words of Greeley) "go west", but the Cowpokes hadn't the right meaning of this phrase as proved in the treatment of their guests. This game proved the main inadequacy of Montana: the impotence of its offense. Although strict Grizzly line play stopped Wyoming's two great backs, Spaulding and Geldien, two pass plays covered the necessary distance. The fumble played a destined part in the Grizzlies' thrust.

These two game losses that could have been decided either way were bitter disappointments to Montana, and the difficult task of re-building morale fell heavily on the shoulders of Coach Chinske. Regardless of the losses the Grizzlies were far from thought of as being the conference "push-overs."

FOOTBALL

BRIGHAM YOUNG 28—MONTANA 7

Amidst Homecoming celebrities and celebrations, the Grizzlies entertained Brigham Young University for both teams' third conference game. Spectators were treated to a close, though somewhat disappointing game for the first three quarters. The Grizzlies swatted the Cougars around like house cats but just couldn't muster enough to cross the final white stripe. Montana outrushed the boys from Provo by 2-1, but unfortunately the score was a reverse of this. Aside from all the pitfalls, the sun wasn't the only bright spot on this day of Homecoming—Hal Gompf scored Montana's first touchdown of the season with a little more than four minutes left in the game.

DENVER 7—MONTANA 17

Feelings in the "Mile High" city of Denver must have been low after the revenging Grizzlies somewhat atoned for their embarrassing loss of the previous year to the Pioneers. Montana wasted no time in driving to their first touchdown as Dean Brott threw on a pass. Denver tied the score at 7-7 in the fourth canto. At this point Don Gerlinger entered to kick a 28-yard field goal which proved to add the winning points. Minutes later Bob Dantic broke loose for 20 yards and the game's final touchdown. Specialist Gerlinger again converted.

OREGON 14—MONTANA 14

The Grizzlies flew to Eugene to play the University of Oregon Webfeet in one of the season's most exciting games. Big Bo Laird scored the game's first touchdown to put Montana in the lead; but Shaw, Oregon's great passer, threw two scoring passes to put the Webfeet out in front 14-7. Late in the last quarter Dick Heath threw Montana's only completed pass of the afternoon to Dean Bratt for the tying touchdown. Seconds later Don Gerlinger missed an attempted field goal. Captain Hal Maus and Jim Murray showed well for Montana along with the superb punting of Bellis.

May I have the next dance?

MONTANA STATE 12—MONTANA 35

From over the mountains came the Bobcats eager to engage the Grizzly Bear in their annual encounter. At game's opening the eager Bobcats scored first blood against a seemingly overconfident Grizzly squad. By the finale the Bobcats were subdued per se, by Murdo Campbell who threw two touchdown passes to Ed Anderson and Fred Mirchoff, and ran 33 yards for another score. Dean Bratt advanced his season's scoring total by driving for the Grizzly's first points. While Bob Antonick played the part of Gibraltar in the middle of the line, linebacker Murray ran an interception into scoring territory.

COLORADO A & M 41—MONTANA 0

Two Colorado Aggies, Don Burroughs and Alex Burl, were fleet with the pigskin to outpass and outrun the Silvertips in a clash at Fort Collins. Bratt and Dantic won the majority of the 56 yards gained by the Grizzlies.

IDAHO 27—MONTANA 0

Montana's hopes for spoiling the Vandals Homecoming exercises were nil as Idaho outfought and outplayed the Grizzlies. The squad from the potato state could do no wrong as they took advantage of blocked kicks and fumbles to score four touchdowns while keeping the Grizzlies pointless.

SAN JOSE STATE 39—MONTANA 20

Faced with the nearly impossible task of erasing a 39-0 half-time deficit at the Spartans' home in San Jose, the Grizzlies fought to three touchdowns in the second half, holding the sons of Sparta scoreless. San Jose, sporting the best offense in the nation, had their hands full in the second division as Dantic scored, followed by Brott's two touchdowns.

NEW MEXICO 12—MONTANA 6

Albuquerque was the site of one of the better defensive conference games of the year when two teams met that were not exactly noted for dazzling offense. Montana, playing a definitely underdog role due to the Lobos 3-0 conquest of the Colorado Aggies, was again plagued by "breaks", the major one being a blocked punt. Fred Mirchoff scored from the five-yard line to be one of the few conference players to do such a feat against the Lobos this year. The dopesters did miss one prophecy, however, that of a possible kicking duel between conversionists, Mike Prokopiak of New Mexico and the Grizzlies' Don Gerlinger. Prokopiak missed his first of the season and Gerlinger's lone attempt was his only miss in the conference.

THUS, Montana ended the season with a record of two wins, one tie, and seven losses. Statistic totals were much closer, however, as the Grizzlies earned 121 first downs to their opponents 140 and were out-rushed by a mere 1707 yards to 1671. Bud Bellis, Grizzly punter, led the conference with a 40.7 yard average while Bo Laird and Bob Dantic played sixth and ninth, respectively, in rushing offense. Gene Carlson and Murdo Campbell earned conference honors as they were eighth and ninth in punt returning. Campbell also placed eighth in the passing department. Dean Brott was the top Grizzly scorer with 30 points to garner a seventh place ranking in the conference.

COMMENCING THE SEASON with a squad of unknown ability, Coach George Dahlberg tutored the 1953 Grizzly basketball team through a hard but successful year of Skyline Eight basketball competition. Because the 1954 games will mark the opening of the new Field House, this proved to be the last season in which Montana "fives" played in the old Men's Gym. Almost as a passing gesture, the old Men's Gym provided a loyal homeground for the Silvertips to whittle opposing Titans down to a pliable size. On their home court the Montanans best Utah, Utah State (winner of the Madison Square Garden Invitational tournament which features such teams as LaSalle and N.Y.U.), Washington State, Brigham Young, Denver, New Mexico, Colorado A&M, and Montana State. They lost only one game to the Cowpokes of Wyoming.

The Grizzlies performed at a high degree of efficiency plus determination in establishing a season's record of fourteen wins and eleven losses while earning fourth place rank in the Skyline Conference with six wins, and eight losses. Such individual stars as high scoring Chuck Davis (Most Valuable Player), Jack Luckman (co-sharer of Best Defensive Player Award), Dale Johnson, Jack Coppedge, and Jim McNaney are lost through graduation.

SKIING

One of the most enthusiastic sport groups on campus, the Ski team set out to prove their worth in representing the University in several contests which featured top-flight skiers. While competing in the Denver Invitational, the Ski squad earned seventh place honors; and at the Northern Division Invitational at Kimberly, British Columbia, the team ranked sixth among some of the nation's best skiers. In a duel meet with our country cousins from Bozeman, MSU was defeated by the slim margin of 394 to 387. 1953 marks a year of progress for the Montana Ski Team.

MINOR SPORTS

Jack Daniels, Captain; Bob Moore, Coach John Zeger, Antone Hollinger and Fred Carl.

Under the leadership of Coach John Zeger, the Montana Swimming team competed in two triangular meets and the Skyline Conference meet. Using mainly a three man squad consisting of Captain Jack Daniels, Bob Moore and Fred Carl, the Silvertip Swim squad gained a fourth place at the Conference meet by accumulating five third places plus a first in the 100-yard backstroke by Daniels. Others accounting for points were Moore in the 50-yard free style and Carl in the 100 and 220-yard free style.

M CLUB BOXING TOURNAMENT

Dedicated to Billy Merritt, former MSU student who was killed in Korea, the M Club staged its annual boxing tournament for a capacity crowd. Eager fight fans came in anticipation of exciting bouts. Nearly all were satisfied since most of the boxers were evenly-matched, spirited, and clean fighters. Most pugilists on the card were from the University, some from Missoula High, and several from the Ronan boxing contingent. Phi Delta Theta took the team trophy and George Tarrant won the Merritt Memorial Award as the tournament outstanding boxer.

Predicted to lose their first meet to Brigham Young by several points, the Grizzly trackmen over-ran all expectancies to easily win 73-58. This victory presented a glimpse of things to come as the underdog Montana speedsters continued throughout the season to overthrow predictions.

Coach Harry Adams did his usual fine job of extending individuals' remote possibilities into actual point-winning performances. Evidence of his work showed in the running of Don Brant (edged out in a photo finish by Burl of Colorado AGM at the Conference meet at 9.5 seconds), the hurdling of Dick Lindsay, the javelin throwing of freshman Hal Utsond, and the high jumping of freshman, Ray Dunn. These more or less "unexpected" point-winners with the reliable services of Leon Connor, Mick Luckman, Marv Reynolds, and Bob Beach produced a first place in the Western Division of the Skyline and a third place at the Conference meet.

BASEBALL

GENERAL MILBURN PILOTED the Montana baseball nine to a tie for second place in the western division of Skyline play. In gaining a seven win-five loss record in Skyline competition, the Grizzlies split their series with Utah and Brigham Young and won three of four from Utah State. The Silvertips took all games outside of Conference play except for a twelve-inning five to five tie with the Bonner Lumberjacks. Renewing an old baseball rivalry with the Bobcats from Bozeman brought about the usual result: a four-game sweep.

Pitcher and Co-Captain Gene Carlson signed a professional contract with the New York Yankees and farmed out with Boise of the Pioneer League.
