And Still

and oranges fall from trees and leaves roll rolling dry across pavement
cracked forced
by unseen forces or not beyond the boundaries
blurry and blurring

but painted blues and
greys and yellows
offer no substitute

and must we continue so?
and still there is no green //

crisp leaves roll rolling sky clouds (boundaries fuzzy sky to white)

and not white grey
grey leaves

we cannot contain
nor command
the ceasing of catastrophes

and distant blue is not blue but small

and those small betrayals trifling inconveniences still stuffed in your pockets rise yet distract
and do not fade but reflect and do not attempt

our white palms flashing fingers wrapped
in rings, concerned
beyond rolling clouds

cornered across the span cornered in bends

here the river beds are horizontal and dizzying steep
the orange of evening
wraps forcefully
