11. COMMENTS

12. ADJOURNMENT
Chair Ness called the meeting to order at 6:08 p.m. Present: President Leftridge, Vice President Ness, Business Manager Henderson; Senators Chapman (6:15), Cox, Dodds, Effertz, Fennell, Ferguson, Fulton, Gosline, Harrison, Herrera, Hunter, Morrison, Nalty, Newman, Rand, Smillie and Tabibnejad. Unexcused were Senators Cossitt and Kiki.

The April 2, 2008, meeting minutes were approved.

Public Comment
*A member of the Woodsman Team talked about the conclave they will be hosting this spring and the money they have requested for it.
*A representative from the Student Assault Resource Center told about the “Walk-a-mile-in-her-shoes” event that will be held on the Oval. The registration is $10 or $8 if you bring your own shoes to wear. This is for men to walk a mile wearing women’s shoes.
*Former ASUM Senator (’88) and President (’91) Galen Hollenbaugh told about his Senate experience and encouraged them to keep up the good work. He is currently the State Representative for House District 89 and the Deputy Chief of Staff in the Department of Justice.

The Chair recognized the presence of Senator Chapman.

President’s Report
a. Consultant (and former ASUM Legal Services employee) Teresa Burnham gave a presentation on ASUM structure regarding personnel (Exhibit A). The recommendation is to include personnel duties in the new job description for the ASUM Office Manager.
b. Jessie Davie of the ASUM Center for Sustainability gave a presentation on the greenhouse gas emissions inventory.
c. Off-Campus Renter Center Director Henderson asked Senators to attend the hearing on the proposed safety ordinance and give testimony. He said the voluntary inspection ordinance is good, but a mandatory one would be an improvement. He hopes to have renter topics in the Montana Kaimin and revamp his office’s web site. A non-discriminatory policy is encouraged.
d. Student Resolution Officer Steve Hurin encouraged Senate to advertise his position now to allow for interaction with him before he graduates to aid in the transition process.
e. The ADSUM fundraising dinner is this weekend, with guests Pat Williams and Tess Raunig. The cost is $10.
f. The ASUM primary election is today. Vote!
g. The new Oval magazine is available.
h. Leftridge, along with ASUM Transportation Director Wilson, will be in Washington, D.C. next week where ASUM Transportation will be honored as a winner of the national “Chill Out” award for contributing to the reduction of global warming. All are invited to a party in the Del Brown Room next Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. with the webcast at 5:00 p.m.
A draft for the continuation of the Office of Sustainability was distributed (Exhibit B).
