President's Report

a. This week's fireside chat was with Dean of Students Charles Couture. He explained what his position entails and the interaction he has with students. He said that he takes great pleasure from his work and learns a lot from students. He mentioned that Office Manager Hayes said she has the best job on campus, but he would beg to differ - he thinks he has. He distributed some information about who students should see if they have a complaint (Exhibit A).

The Chair recognized the presence of Senator Fennell.

b. SPA Director Sean Morrison and volunteers will be visiting the dorms as "Dorm Troopers" tomorrow from 5-7 p.m. to help students register to vote. Anyone willing to help should meet at ASUM at 4:30 p.m. He said that 6 mil levy rally was successful and received media attention. Gubernatorial candidates are all supportive of the levy.

c. Hunter thanked Senators who attended the gubernatorial debate.

d. The homecoming parade starts at 10 a.m. Saturday.

e. Singing on the steps, one of the traditional homecoming activities, is tonight at 8.

f. Next week's September 24 Senate meeting has been cancelled due to Senate attendance at the MAS and Board of Regents meetings.

g. The Greenhouse Gas Inventory report is available in the ASUM office.

h. The relevant pages updating ASUM Personnel Policy were distributed to Senators for their notebooks.

i. An article in "Sustainability - The Journal of Record" (Exhibit B) that mentioned UM's bike program was distributed.

j. Hunter announced that the Search Committee for Office Manager Hayes' successor has hired Diana Madison, who will begin working next Monday.

Vice President's Report

- a. Senator Stusek will represent ASUM on KBGA Thursday morning at 8:45 a.m.
- b. Senators who volunteered to work on the University community float were reminded to go to Facility Services Thursday.
- c. Senators needing to be excused from class to attend the Board of Regents meeting should meet with Smillie.
