High school students hear about college and careers; Science Fair deadline announced; MSU professors attend meetings; Ray Rocene testimonial dinner slated at Missoula

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.
Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations, "High school students hear about college and careers; Science Fair deadline announced; MSU professors attend meetings; Ray Rocene testimonial dinner slated at Missoula" (1957). University of Montana News Releases. 33.
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/33

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS HEAR ABOUT COLLEGE AND CAREERS

The first of five teams of Montana State University students taking part in the College and Career Days Program visited Fort Benton, Havre, and Shelby last week. The other teams will appear in 17 Montana communities during March and April.

The University students, accompanied by staff members, talk to high school students, hold panel discussions for them, and answer questions about every aspect of life at the University in Missoula. The program, now in its third year, was set up by the State Dept. of Public Instruction. Expenses are paid by the Associated Students' organization. The students who represent the University to the high schools are selected by the Pub-Travel Board on the basis of grades and activities.

Women chosen are Claire Larson, Whitehall; Helen Harlan, Columbus; Tempie Brown, Port-au-Prince, Haiti; Pat Shaffer, Billings; Kay Thomas, Cody, Wyo.; Nancy Preston, Great Falls, Camie Peterson, Missoula; Sue Williams, Great Falls; Kathryn Johnson, Plains; Pat Harstad, Glendive; Marcia Smith, Missoula; Nancy Perry, Butte; and Ruth Ann Dwyer, Anaconda.

Men selected are Charles Content, Arcadia, Calif.; Bill Williamson, Box Elder; Bob Palin, Waysata, Minn.; Ken Robison, Square Butte; Bob Arras, Cut Bank; Bob Higham, Belfry; Rick Benson, Glasgow; Larry Nitz, Clyde Park; Bill Adams, Park City; Byron Christian, Kalispell; Bill Crawford, Missoula; Bob Crane, Armington; Merrill Evenson, Hardin; D. C. Hodges, Sheridan; and Don Oliver, Billings.

***

Montana State University Weekly News Roundup

PUBLIC SERVICE

March 15, 1957

Montana State University Weekly News Roundup

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS HEAR ABOUT COLLEGE AND CAREERS

The first of five teams of Montana State University students taking part in the College and Career Days Program visited Fort Benton, Havre, and Shelby last week. The other teams will appear in 17 Montana communities during March and April.

The University students, accompanied by staff members, talk to high school students, hold panel discussions for them, and answer questions about every aspect of life at the University in Missoula. The program, now in its third year, was set up by the State Dept. of Public Instruction. Expenses are paid by the Associated Students' organization. The students who represent the University to the high schools are selected by the Pub-Travel Board on the basis of grades and activities.

Women chosen are Claire Larson, Whitehall; Helen Harlan, Columbus; Tempie Brown, Port-au-Prince, Haiti; Pat Shaffer, Billings; Kay Thomas, Cody, Wyo.; Nancy Preston, Great Falls, Camie Peterson, Missoula; Sue Williams, Great Falls; Kathryn Johnson, Plains; Pat Harstad, Glendive; Marcia Smith, Missoula; Nancy Perry, Butte; and Ruth Ann Dwyer, Anaconda.

Men selected are Charles Content, Arcadia, Calif.; Bill Williamson, Box Elder; Bob Palin, Waysata, Minn.; Ken Robison, Square Butte; Bob Arras, Cut Bank; Bob Higham, Belfry; Rick Benson, Glasgow; Larry Nitz, Clyde Park; Bill Adams, Park City; Byron Christian, Kalispell; Bill Crawford, Missoula; Bob Crane, Armington; Merrill Evenson, Hardin; D. C. Hodges, Sheridan; and Don Oliver, Billings.

***
SCIENCE FAIR DEADLINE ANNOUNCED

The second Montana Science Fair is scheduled for April 5 and 6 at Montana State University, Missoula, Dr. R. A. Diettert, director, announced. The deadline for exhibit entry blanks and reservations for lodging and meals is Wednesday, March 27, he said.

Exhibits entered by students in grades ten through twelve will be judged in the High School Division. Ninth graders' entries will be shown in the Junior High School Division. One boy and one girl in the High School Division will be awarded trips to Los Angeles, Calif., to compete in the National Science Fair in May.

***

MSU PROFESSORS ATTEND MEETINGS

Four Montana State University faculty members will travel to meet professional engagements this week, MSU officials announced.

Dr. Thomas Payne, associate professor of political science, will take part in a meeting of the American Society for Public Administration, March 20-24, in Chicago, Ill. Dr. R. A. Diettert, professor of botany, will be a judge for the science fair in Choteau on March 23.

Dr. Maurine Clow, associate dean of students, will attend the Institute for College and University Administrators in Carmel, Calif., on March 22. She will also attend the annual meeting of the National Assn. of Women Deans and Counselors at San Francisco, Calif., before returning to Missoula on April 4.

On March 23, James E. Dew of the Art Dept. will serve on the jury for the 11th annual Pacific Northwest Art Exhibition. The paintings selected by the jury will be shown in the Spokane Coliseum, April 1-April 28.

***
Weekly Sports Roundup

RAY ROCENE TESTIMONIAL DINNER SLATED AT MISSOULA

The annual Chamber of Commerce Letterman's banquet honoring Montana University letter winners has been combined to include a testimonial to Ray T. Rocene, veteran Daily Missoulian sports editor, at Missoula, May 29th, according to John T. Campbell, Chamber Athletic Committee Chairman.

Rocene, who has been on the Daily Missoulian staff for 40 years, will be the guest of honor at the banquet. An annual Ray Rocene Sportsman plaque will be presented for the first time this year to the outstanding sportsman in Missoula County.

Newspaper men throughout the state, Grizzly lettermen, and sport fans are being contacted to attend the ceremony. Donations are being received and will be used to set up a Rocene Scholarship to be awarded to an athlete at the University.

The Chamber committee is in the process of lining up a national sports celebrity as guest speaker at the banquet.

***