administration banners, flying bravely over a student population, swirled upward and outward as past-president E. O. Melby took over the chancellorship of all the university's units . . . C. W. ... past the diligent stage in playing college people ... students not scholars ... some have made their mark ... shooting straight into coveted honoraries ... on with the dance of life ... college for them is a half and half taste of war and peace ... g. i. boots and wing-tipped florsheims. . . .
much ado about everything ... activity boys and girls ... observers of keep-off-the-grass signs ... the terrifying first year over, one hurdle has been passed ... spur whites rampant ... assistants to the assistants ... they get the sucker jobs done... to swell an ever-decreasing campus population came a surprising multitude of freshmen ... custom was severed when rush week and frosh orientation were not conducted together in the same telescopic days ... this hectic week was their first plunge into an almost tradition-bare campus life ... but they'll hold on for hopes of a brighter year ...

under this competent staff, the once familiar junior rotc, with six months' basic training behind them, returned to college to maintain the only campus astp unit. they were welcomed back to a strictly military campus which, despite khaki disguise, was still their alma mater. during the four months they were here they saw their leader step forth from a captain to a major . . . saw co-eds becoming blinded by khaki . . . saw a campus undergo drastic wartime changes. then came the long-awaited orders and they were fort benning-bound, promising to return with commissions well in hand.

Robert Weede

late in spring quarter Mr. Weede was scheduled to appear on the last program of the series... the versatile baritone is well known for his radio work...
Yehudi Menuhin

first engagement of Mr. Menuhin to Missoula was unavoidably delayed, but a later itinerary brought the violinist to the student union theatre. . . . once a child prodigy, Menuhin showed himself to be one of the superb artists of the age . . .

Jesus Maria Sanroma

second community concert feature was Mr. Sanroma, puerto rican keyboard virtuoso, who enthralled the audience with his colorful styling, giving special emphasis to the music of his native Latin America. . . . applause brought a warm response to several popular encores . . .

working under the war-time handicap of a shortage of experienced players, the '44 grizzlies, composed of nine freshmen and one sophomore, fought through a 12-game schedule, winning two and dropping ten. Yet coach Buzzetti's grizzlies were always good ball-hustlers, hard-fighters, and showed plenty of spirit throughout the season. They gained experience as time went on—enough to upset favored Carroll College, 43-33 and Montana Mines, 55-46. Tall Jack Bulen of Great Falls and Bill Jesse of Missoula were the most outstanding players produced by the grizzlies this year.

Montana opened the season at Butte against Montana Mines and lost, 49-41 and 51-34. . . . then they faced Carroll College Navy at Helena and lost, 60-34 and 56-34. Boese, Bulen, and Fisher were high point men in these tilts.
the high-scoring savages of eastern washington college of education were the next hoopsters scheduled and the grizzlies traveled to cheney, only to lose, 67-39 and 59-44. Jesse sank 30 points in that series and Bulen looped in 21. . . . grizzlies played host to the same cheney warriors in their first home series, losing twice again, 67-41 and 66-46. Jesse was high for the grizzlies with 16 points in both tilts.

grizzlies finally broke into the winning column on the home court, winning saturday's game from carroll navy, 43-33, after losing friday's encounter, 54-41. Bulen used his overhead shots to chalk up 15 points in the first game and 16 in the second. . . . in winding up the season, the grizzlies met montana school of mines on the home court and split the series, winning the first, 55-46, as Jesse found the hoop for 17 and Bulen for 16, and dropping the second, 55-43.

well, this is the point where you have finished scanning the pictorial pages of activities you've participated in during the year, sanctioned or unsanctioned; and you've passed judgment. If anything has been left out, perhaps it's better left so; otherwise, remember there's a limit to the space.

the finished product you have here in your hands is a far cry from the one planned last fall, but the general idea, we hope, is still there—to give you a general picture of m. s. u. life during the past three quarters.

as work progressed, we found ourselves cutting here, changing there, to make the book fit the budget. at times we had to content ourselves with the slim satisfaction of knowing that we were keeping an old tradition alive. if we have, then our purpose was accomplished after all. if not, it’s too late to weep now.

BUY WITH CONFIDENCE

Our country has not been devastated by bombs. Our people don’t have to walk the streets with one eye cocked to the sky and both ears open for the warning to duck into a bomb shelter. Our men are fighting in every theater of war to bring the final victory.

It is unreasonable to suppose that any food will be allowed to go to waste in 1944. It is also unreasonable to believe our people will demand more than their share of the things we have.

Your RED & WHITE Grocer is on watch to protect you, his customer.
