12. ADJOURNMENT
Chair May called the meeting to order at 6:02 p.m. Present: President Fennell, Vice President May, Business Manager Armstrong; Senators Barhaugh, Carson, Chuang (6:05), Davis, Dusek, Engum, Guilhemotnia, K. Kettering, M. Kettering, Kilts, Mariani, Rhea, Rose, Smartt, Stovall, Summers, Torti, Wilke. Senators Brewer and Williams were excused.

The minutes from the September 16, 2009 meeting were approved as corrected.

Public Comment
* Zach Porter spoke about his concern over the state of public lands in Montana and asked the Senate to support Senator Tester’s Forest Jobs and Recreation Act (S-1470) and SB4. Also speaking in support of S-1470 and SB4 were Heather Day, for whom the protection of the watershed is also important, and Leo Brett, who also spoke in support of the forest products industry.
* Molly Collins, Assistant Director for Student Involvement and Leadership Development, provided the weekly University Center (UC) recap. Upcoming events include: the Art Gallery opening for Brett Svetlick 10/2 from 5 - 7 p.m., two movies this weekend; Speed Dating in the UC Ballroom on 10/5; Student Groups 101 on 10/6; Upright Citizens’ Brigade on 10/7; and the UC Art Fair from 10/8 – 10/10.
* Kris Lange, Business Manager for the Honors Student Association, spoke in favor of the Special Allocation request for the 10/10 Homecoming Dance.
* Faith Dawson and Justyn Field raised three issues on behalf of the special services and needs of the Alliance for Disability and Students at the University of Montana (ADSUM) program. First, is the need for a fully functioning and accessible computer. Second, is the need for funding of First Call Computer Solutions assistance. Third, is a request for a new policy which would allow students who have difficulty using the Recreation Center to use the New Directions Wellness Center in the Skaggs Building as it has specialized equipment and is designed for people with special needs.
* Jared Trilling, current chair of MontPIRG, extended an invitation to the Senate to attend the group’s organizational meeting at 6 p.m. 10/1.
* Michael Billington spoke in favor of S-1470 and SB4.
* Michael Franks spoke in favor of S-1470 and SB4.
Owen Weber spoke in favor of S-1470, SB4 and SB5.
Kassia Randzio spoke in favor of SB4.
Zach Porter, speaking on behalf of UM Climate Action Now spoke in favor of endorsing the federal American Clean Energy and Security Act legislation.

The chair recognized the presence of Senators Chuang and Summers.

President’s Report
a. The student group introduction for the week was moved from the Vice President’s Report to the top of the President’s Report in order to accommodate the schedule of the speakers. Sandra Nokes, Outreach Coordinator, and Janet Smith, Intern, for the Women’s Resource Center (WRC) talked about the center as a resource for men and women on campus and the various educational events which the center sponsors. There will be a WRC-sponsored exhibit in conjunction with the Day of Dialogue, three Sex and Gender lectures in November and the upcoming Love Your Body Day.

b. Photographer Todd Goodrich was unable to make the meeting and will be rescheduled.

c. Senator Barhaugh, chair of the Interview Committee, talked about the committee’s meeting and debate which resulted in the recommendation of Anthony Edwards to fill the position of Director of the Student Political Action (SPA) office. Anthony was introduced and answered questions posed by the Senate. A motion was made by Fennell-Wilke to approve Anthony Edwards as the new SPA Director. There was an objection to a call for unanimous approval and the motion passed 18 – 2 on a roll call vote (see Talley sheet).

d. Mountain-side Chats:
   1. Barbara Koostra, Director of the Montana Museum of Art and Culture (MMAC), shared information about the 10,000 art objects and artifacts which make up the permanent international collection of the MMAC, including works by many historical and well-known artists. Founded in 1894, the MMAC is only able to display .5% of its collection at any one time. Currently, MMAC is sponsoring the exhibit of Pulitzer prize-winning photographs, “Capture the Moment.”
   2. Jim Hirstein, chair of the Accreditation Steering Committee, handed out an update (Exhibit A) on The University of Montana’s (UM) current accreditation process. The UM is scheduled to be evaluated in April of 2010.
e. Board of Regents meeting recap: ASUM received approval for a new bus barn. A highlight of the meeting was a two-hour presentation on the Strategic Finance and Outcomes-Based Allocation System exploring options for making higher education more efficient. A workgroup is forming and it would be good for students to participate. Visit www.mus.edu for a link to a brainstorming list. A Montana Association of Students election was held and Matt Fennell was elected President.

f. Senators were encouraged to attend the Academic Strategic Plan Town Hall meeting 10/1 from 3 – 5 p.m. in GBB 123 as student involvement is needed.

g. The Hello Walk in front of Turner Hall will be painted by students and alumni with international versions of “hello” the Friday of Homecoming, 10/16, from 1:30-2:30 p.m.

h. An ASUM Child Care poster hanging in the UC has been mutilated for the second time. President Fennell passed around one of the posters with the face of an African American child’s face scratched out and called for an end to this kind of absolutely unacceptable vandalism.

Vice President’s Report

a. Committee appointments and removals were moved as a slate by Dusek-Davis and passed with unanimous consent on a motion by Rhea (Exhibit B).

b. Erik Rose will be the first Senator of the semester to speak on behalf of ASUM during the KBGA radio Thursday morning program.

c. An ad hoc committee on diversity has been formed in order to make ASUM a more welcoming body. It will research diversity issues, collaborate with various student and community groups, and work on education and research. A signup sheet was passed around for interested Senators.

d. An ad hoc committee on Students First will brainstorm outreach methods for the Students First campaign and focus on tactics for educating students about ASUM. The committee might also work on the Know Your Rights campaign, time permitting. A signup sheet was passed around for interested Senators.

e. Vice President May reminded Senators that the signup sheet for ASUM office hours is next to the Senate mailboxes.

f. Saturday, 10/3, the Start! Heart Walk will take place from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and all were invited to join a team.

g. UM Productions was recently featured in a national magazine.
h. The Revolving Energy Loan Fund and Academic Standards and Curriculum Review Committees have openings.

i. Vice President May would like to schedule an informal meeting for the Senate and asked that Senators provide times when they are available.

j. The Missoula City Council will be voting on zoning regulations Monday, 10/5, at 7 p.m. and Senators were encouraged to attend.
