1956-57... the year...

fall... began with football blasts of screaming... tension... rebellion... Suez crisis contributed to general anxiety with threat of return to khaki for many... energy erupted with Halloween pantie raid and effigy... snow, Christmas and final exams, with the new higher academic standards, calmed and objectified.

winter... a bit of apathy... many took to the ski slopes... watched basketball team come in third in conference... controversies over judicial board and the pep of music at games... attendance mushroomed at Friday Club and Great Philosopher lectures with leading campus figures speaking or leading discussion... trend of campus split between the intellectual and the rah rah began to appear.

spring... and out came the sun and the tans... the swim suits and bermudas... and, of course, the picnics... asmsu prexy campaigning never so fierce despite overt lack of issues... leadership camp and kaimin pages displayed objective concern with the needs and values of academia.

Lady Luck certainly wasn't on Montana's side this season. Injuries plagued the team wherever the Grizzlies went.

Both Severn Hayes and Ervin Rosera, the two leading ground gainers, suffered broken legs during the latter part of the year. Hayes had also broken his leg during the previous season. Bill Kaiser was forced to hang up his spikes with an injured back. Matt Gorsich's severe leg injury caused him to miss the Idaho game.

Don Williamson bruised his knee at Salt Lake City and Bill Hand missed both the New Mexico and Idaho games. Dick Dzivi, Montana Bockman, Bob McGihon and Ivory Jones, plus several others, suffered various injuries. An appendectomy kept Hayes from playing football this year. An appendectomy kept Hosea from playing football this year.

Unfortunately, injuries plagued the team wherever the Grizzlies went.

Injuries plagued the team wherever the Grizzlies went.

Montana's Grizzlies claim to fame this season was in its ranking sixth in the nation in punt returns—24 for 342 yards and an average of 14.3 yards per carry. The Silvertips won only one while losing nine games.

In the first game of the season, Arizona downed Montana 27-12. Although holding down Art Luppino, the champion ground gainer in college history, with a stout ground defense, the Silvertips were victims of a sizzling air attack.

Two weeks later Utah's two platoons outlasted the Grizzlies for a 26-6 win for the strong Utes.

Sports Illustrated said this about the third straight game on the road, "Denver won its first of the season, handing Montana its third straight loss 22-13. All the scoring in this one was in the first half, the officials taking over in the second half. In fact, the striped shirts had a field day as they marched off too much yardage in their enthusiasm, another time getting the downs mixed up, and finally permitting an ineligible receiver to catch a pass."

Before 7500 Homecoming fans, in Montana's first home game, Utah State broke a 13-13 tie at the start of the fourth quarter to go on to hand a 27-13 loss to the hapless Grizzlies.

Four first-stringers, Kaiser, McGihon, Jones, and Williamson, weren't in the Montana line-up due to injuries.

The Grizzlies round out 19 first downs in a 32-14 victory over the Brigham Young Cougars. Guard Renning, elected outstanding lineman of the game, performed a rare feat; he scored on a 40-yard run after intercepting a BYU pass.

The Wyoming Cowboys, who also had an undefeated season, ran wild in the second half to humble the Silvertips 34-13; the score at halftime was deadlocked at 13-13.

Despite Montana's Rosera, who gained first downs at random, New Mexico's Los Vales kicked out a 14-13 win from the Grizzlies in a game which saw a near-riot in the closing seconds. Tempers flared over a swinging incident between two players.

Both benches emptied onto the field as spectators joined in. Policemen spent five minutes clearing the field.

On Thanksgiving Day, the Idaho Vandals retained the little brown jug by taking advantage of a blocked kick and a 41-yard T.D. march to shut out the scrappy Montana eleven 14-0.

In the 20-34 loss to Colorado A & M, Montana's only bright spot was Hayes' 70-yard sprint into paydirt on a kickoff return. The Montana State Bobcats won their eleventh victory of the 56 fray's between the two schools by a score of 14-33. The Bobcats went on to finish their undefeated season by playing in the Aluminum Bowl at Little Rock, Arkansas.

The Wyoming Cowboys, who also had an undefeated season, ran wild in the second half to humble the Silvertips 34-13; the score at halftime was deadlocked at 13-all.

Despite Montana's Rosera, who gained first downs at random, New Mexico's Los Vales kicked out a 14-13 win from the Grizzlies in a game which saw a near-riot in the closing seconds. Tempers flared over a swinging incident between two players.

Russ Sheriff (5) hooks over the outstretched hand of Harold Theus for two points as the Grizzlies down Utah State 78-67.

Bob Martin (33) of New Mexico seems to be using Hal Erickson as a stepping stone to greater heights. Russ Sheriff (5) and Myrl Goodwin (45) await the rebound. Martin's antics weren't too effective, as Montana won the game, 68-50.

In the picture below, Ray Howard goes high in the air to grab a rebound from the anxiously awaiting arms of Jim Powell (10), and Dave Bradley (7) and Terry Eekhardt (10) of Wyoming. Al Dunham (6) and Don Carlson (15) stand under the basket. Montana won, 64-60.

In the above picture, Clancy Waters (16) drives in to shoot under the long arm of Ted Smith (14) of Utah State. Montana won, 78-67. Zip Rhoades (7), Al Dunham (6), Russ Sheriff (5), and Harold Theus (16) move in for the rebound.
Montana's hustling hoop squad, a "dark bear" in the 1957 Skyline race, finally finished in third place in the conference standings after remaining in the thick of the battle for the "top dog" position until the final game of the season.

The Grizzlies' 9-5 Skyline record was the finest showing by a Montana team since MSU joined the mountain loop in 1951. Against non-conference foes, MSU broke even in eight games to round off the total season's record at 13-8.

The Silvertips proved they were definitely a home court team by winning eleven in a row at home after losing to Idaho in the first fray of the season in the Field House. They won two while losing eight away from home, which was an improvement over last year when the squad didn't win any games on the road.

Their two road wins came at the expense of Wyoming and New Mexico. The 36-33 victory at New Mexico on Feb. 16 was MSU's first league win away from home since Feb. 28, 1952. The 81-78 win over the Cowboys was only the second time Montana has won an athletic event in Skyline play at Wyoming.

JUMP BALL. Ray Howard (11) and Gary McEwen (18) of Idaho leap to tip the ball in Montana's opening game. Waiting for the tip are Waylen Coleman (26), Jim Powell (10), Jim Prestel (30), and Rudy Rhoades (7). Idaho won, 72-56.
Montana led the Skyline conference in defense by holding their foes to 62.9 points per game in 14 league contests. MSU was one of the top 20 teams in the nation in defense.

Al Dunham tied the school record for scoring the most points via free throws in one game by swishing 14 as MSU beat Colorado A&M 74-63. Dunham also set what may be a new Skyline record by scoring 33 consecutive free throws.

The Grizzlies set a new school record by scoring 72.1 per cent of their free throws.

Ray Howard grabbed 21 rebounds against Idaho. Clancy Waters scored 22 of the team’s 36 points in outlasting New Mexico’s stalling tactics, 36-33.

In the February 23 fray with B.Y.U., Zip Rhoades (7) flicks a left-handed jump shot over the outstretched hands of Lynn Rowe of B.Y.U. Also pictured are Jim Powell (10), Tom Steinke (23), Russ Sheriff (6), and Roy Thacker (35).

Montana 60 - Utah 48

Big Russ Sheriff bucketed 15 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to inspire the hustling Grizzlies to scalp the Utah Redskins, defending Skyline champions, by a 60-48 score. After a fairly close first half, the Grizzlies, playing deliberately and exhibiting a zone defense, pulled away midway in the last half.

In the below picture of the January 19 game, Al Dunham (6) springs high into the stratosphere to swish two points despite the defensive work of Jerry McCleary (35). Shown are Waters (16), Clack Shores (10), and Sheriff (6).

Montana 71 - B.Y.U. 63

In one of the most thrilling comebacks ever witnessed in Missoula, MSU scored 15 points while holding Brigham Young scoreless in the last five minutes and 46 seconds to defeat the Cougars 71-63. At the time, BYU had one of the top-ranked hoop squads in the nation.

Jim Powell, in his first starting game, scored 15 points and cleared 18 rebounds. Dunham pulled in 12 rebounds and bucketed 9 points. Rhoades swished 19 points, while Ray Howard scored 6 vital points in the closing minutes to thrill the capacity crowd of 6,700.

More Facts . . .

Zip Rhoades scored 28 points as MSU lost to Utah State 79-80. Dunham played the finest game of his collegiate career in the 64-60 win over Wyoming by racking up 25 points and 14 rebounds.

Rhoades scored on 10 out of 15 attempted field goals, made 26 points, and victory against Colorado A&M.

gathered in 13 rebounds in the 74-63.

Jim Powell scored 18 points in the second half to lead MSU to an 81-78 win at Wyoming, after the Silvertips had been behind 33-44 at halftime.

Waters’ 18 second half tallies weren’t enough as Utah downed MSU 84-76.

Zip Rhoades finished 10th, Clancy Waters 11th and Al Dunham 13th in Skyline scoring for 14 games. Their total points were 216, 194 and 180 respectively.

public service division . . .

Administrative agency . . . carries on the university's off-campus activities and services . . . has varied departments.

SITTING: Virginia Golden, publications; Maribeth Dwyer, news service division; Ross Miller, director, public service division and news service; Jeanne Southard, secretary; Mary Margaret Courtney, secretary, home study and adult education.

STANDING: Les Pengelly, conservation education extension; Cyrille Van Duser, student employment secretary, hometown news and yearbook adviser; Dick Harris, news service photographer; Cye Noe, tv assistant; Murdo Campbell, athletic news.

Keeps the MSU alumni in contact with the university, each other and the activities of each . . . this accomplished through the alumni news bulletin . . . maintains a permanent office on campus.

Kathryn Buzzetti, clerk; Marcus Bourke, secretary-treasurer, Montana State University Alumni Association, and Hulda Fields, records secretary, standing in front of the alumni house on campus.
The 1957 Sentinel has sought for change in organization, design and idea . . . not change for the sake of change but change for the realization that only by such can come revaluation of old ways and perhaps a fresher, more living and cohesive approach. The changes are many and evident. The only one I shall mention is the lack of advertising which did mean a small cut in budget which was compensated for by lack of color and less expensive covers. These economies will be foregone next year, and with happier merchants, we hope.

I wish to thank all those who so willingly gave of their time and effort to make this book a reality. The list is long . . . the immediate staff, of course, Kay Blaszek, Bill Boring, Chuck Janda, Don Harkin, Danna Davis, Dee Scriven, Walt Gerson, Larry David, Roger Livdahl, Chuck Davey, Julia Parenti and all the many freshman girls . . . Cyrile Van Duser for her advice and encouragement, Claud Lord, Rod Fisher and Gale Brammer of the University Press, Tom McConnell of Kingskraft Covers and Jack Gallant and Al Salisbury of the Artcraft Engraving Company.

The Missoulian photographers, Stan Healy, John Forssen and Ken Payton, Dick Harris of the University staff, Scotty Campbell of the Butte Standard and Shell Oil Company, and Ken Cooper . . . the many faculty members and students who cooperated when asked for information and posing . . . Bob Dundas, Lucille Armsby, Ross Miller, Marcus Bourke, Murdo Campbell, Dr. Carl McFarland . . . the Registrar's Office, Athletic Department, News Service, Kaimin, the Business Office and the Lodge Main Desk.

And most of all, the members of my family and Ross when the pressure made me difficult to live with . . . and Kay for the tedious finishing touches.
