President’s Report
a. Dining Services Director LoParco and staff Byron Drake and Shelly Gay reported on their UM Concessions program, which would give ASUM and other non-profit organizations an opportunity to raise money for their activities. Another exciting project for next year will be a new, totally green building in the Urey Lecture Hall area, part of which will be a learning lab with culinary, marketing and other department collaboration.

one arriving today. Students may meet with him Friday at 10:45 a.m. in UC326.
d. Awards and graduation cords were presented to Senators Harrison (Courageous Dissension), Diaz (All-around Leadership), and Pappas (Extraordinary Passion).

e. Vice President Foley welcomed the new Senate and thanked incoming and outgoing Senates for the award he received. He portrayed Barbara Hollmann as a great student advocate. He felt he’d learned a lot from students and was pleased with the “shared governance” this past year.
f. A new director for the ASUM Off-Campus Renter Center will be hired this summer, and Leftridge asked for input. He looks at this position as a student rights advocate, which is very important.

A previous question call by Cox failed. A motion by Nalty-Morrison to divide the question passed after a previous question call by Childers. After a previous question call by Morrison, Ausland was approved with unanimous consent on a motion by Leftridge, and Smith was approved with unanimous consent on a motion by Henderson.
