The Associated Students of The University of Montana
Resolution Regarding Anti-Discrimination
September 12, 2012
SB12-12/13
Authored By: Gwendolyn Coon, ASUM Senator and Micah Nielsen, ASUM Business Manager
Sponsored by: James Bird, ASUM Senator; Becca Boslough, ASUM Senator; Jacob Brown, ASUM Senator; Shelby Dolezal, ASUM Senator; Kip Faircloth, ASUM Senator; Stevie Freund, ASUM Senator; Cody Gordon, ASUM Senator; Ryan Hazen, ASUM Senator; Mike Hopkins, ASUM Senator; Richard LeCoulter, ASUM Senator; Trent Oliver, ASUM Senator; Eamon Ormseth, ASUM Senator; Layokat Rasulova, ASUM Senator; Alexandra Rich, ASUM Senator; Sarah Sather, ASUM Senator; Brandon Simpson, ASUM Senator; Damara Simpson, ASUM Senator; Nicole Watkins, ASUM Senator; Topher Williams, ASUM Senator; Zach Brown, ASUM President; and Bryn Hagfors, ASUM Vice President.

Whereas, The University of Montana has taken a strong stance against any form of discrimination through their Non-Discrimination and Equal Opportunity Policy;

Whereas, The University’s Diversity Plan instructs The University to provide guidance for students to foster a multicultural society;

Whereas, The University, according to their Non-Discrimination Policy, “will protect against retaliation” upon individuals that report discrimination violations;

Whereas, past Associated Students of The University of Montana (ASUM) Senates have taken a stance supporting anti-discrimination policies from The University and The University’s Diversity Plan.

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, that ASUM universally condemns any and all forms of discrimination towards current or past students or members of the community;

Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, that ASUM recognizes and supports all University of Montana students regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, creed, marital status, sexual orientation, sexual identity, military service, occupational status, or political ideas;

Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, that ASUM encourages all members of The University Community to report all incidents and acts of discrimination in accordance with University Policy;
Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, that ASUM further encourages the creation of and supports plans of action against all forms of discrimination by the ASUM Executives, ASUM Senate, ASUM Committees and ASUM Recognized Student Groups.
