Resolution Regarding the ASUM IT Committee

October 24, 2012

SB24-12/13

Authored by: Bryn Hagfors, ASUM Vice President

Sponsored by:

Whereas, The Associated Students of The University of Montana (ASUM) Senate currently consists of 26 senators;

Whereas, ASUM currently has a committee structure composed of 23 committees;

Whereas, ASUM senators are not compensated for the time they commit to the organization;

Whereas, committees require a considerable time commitment by their members;

Whereas, there currently exist at least three university committees addressing issues related to information technology;

Whereas, ASUM contracts its information technology services outside of the organization;

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, that ASUM no longer recognize or maintain an information technology committee as currently mandated by the ASUM bylaws;

Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, that Article IV section 11 be removed from the ASUM bylaws, and that the numbering of the bylaws be changed to reflect this removal.
