Whereas, the Student Involvement Network’s (SIN) Griz Lead Emerging Leaders Program offers student-focused leadership opportunities designed to provide and enhance essential career and life skills;

Whereas, Griz Lead will be providing leadership workshops annually designed specifically to equip student group leaders with the skill set and resources they need to lead effectively;

Whereas, leadership training will help prepare student groups to use student money more effectively and efficiently;

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, that The Associated Students of The University of Montana (ASUM) shall earmark $10.00 for every student group that has representation at a Griz Lead workshop during the 2013 fiscal year which shall be allocated during the annual budgeting process;

Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, that SIN and Griz Lead coordinators will communicate to the ASUM Board on Members and Board on Budget and Finance which student groups members attend;
