7-28-1957

Governor Aronson will address Mineral Law Institute at MSU

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.
Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/85

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, JULY 28

GOVERNOR ARONSON WILL ADDRESS MINERAL LAW INSTITUTE AT MSU

Gov. J. Hugo Aronson will address the third annual Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Institute at its opening session Thursday (August 1) at Montana State University, Missoula, Institute Director Robert E. Sullivan announced. The Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation sponsors the institute, which will continue through Saturday.

Foundation President William J. Wehrli of Casper, Wyo., will deliver the opening remarks at 9 a.m. daylight time Thursday and introduce the governor, who will officially welcome the delegates to Montana, according to Sullivan, dean of the MSU Law School.

Attorneys and industry personnel from throughout the Rocky Mountain region will attend the three-day institute, which will feature talks by 21 mineral law specialists from all over the country. The program will cover topics of current interest to persons actually working in the field of oil, gas, and mining law, Dean Sullivan said.