Public Comment

- Rob Olson provided the MontPIRG update. The board met last week to review expenditures from last semester. One of the MontPIRG lobbyists is working with Representative Champ Edwards on his bill to keep employers from taking potential employees' credit history into account when hiring. MontPIRG lobbyists continue to testify on many bills. On March 21, and 22, 1150 students signed petitions in favor of the continuation of a MontPIRG chapter at the UM funded by a $5 per student, per semester refundable fee. If approved by the ASUM Senate, the question would be put to a student vote during the General Election in April.

- Jinann Bitar, of the University Center (UC) office of Student Involvement, provided the update of upcoming UC events: Open Mic Night is March 24, from 8 p.m. to midnight, in the UC Game Room; The Nooner, March 25, will feature Massey Ferguson; the film “The Kids Are Alright” is being shown as part of the Diversity Film Series, March 30, at 7 p.m. Jinann also announced that she is the new Day of Dialogue (DoD) Coordinator and students and others are encouraged to submit proposals for the DoD online.

- Lucas Minnick, President of the Japanese Student Association (JSA), explained the dire need reflected in the JSA’s Special Allocation Request. The group would like to purchase wrist bands to be sold as a fund raiser for the Japanese Red Cross. Reina Watanabe, one of 65 currently enrolled students from Japan and member of the JSA, spoke about her hometown, Sendai, one of the towns in northeast Japan devastated by the earthquake and tsunami.

- Slater Heckel, spoke on his own behalf as one of many UM students who rely on Pell Grants to be able to attend college. The issue is education, not budgeting, and to cut Pell Grants verges on being unethical.

The minutes from the March 16, 2011 meeting were approved.

President’s Report
a. Mountainside Chat:
   1. John Aliri, Member of the Management Team of the Bookstore at the University of Montana and Director of the The Market in the UC, explained how important it is, in the interest of savings students money, for faculty members to place textbook orders by the April 15 deadline. The Bookstore would like ASUM’s support with a campaign, “Earn Us More,” to increase awareness of the issue. Two aspects of the campaign are a website, www.MTBookstore/earnusmore, and stickers for display.
   b. Jen Gursky, ASUM Lobbyist, provided a legislative update via Skype from Helena. The vote on the bonding bill that would provide $29 million for a new College of Technology building is scheduled to be voted on March 24, at 11 a.m. Lobbyist Gursky explained that passage is not assured and encouraged senators to make a last minute effort and call or email their legislators prior to the vote. Lobbyist Gursky also testified at the hearing of Joint Resolution 16, a bill sponsored by Senator Facey asking for passenger rail service to be put on a feasibility study list. ASUM resolution SB10-09/10 passed last year and was entered as testimony in support of the resolution. The last Student Lobby Day, March 18, was a great success. Students from across the state met and shared lunch with legislators.
   c. President Williams announced that the evening’s Senate meeting would be Senator Amatuzio’s last and thanked Senator Amatuzio for her service.

   c. The ASUM Administrative Associate, Andrea Rhoades, will need a lot of assistance this week processing election
