MIDDLETON APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCED

The appointment of Tomme Lu Middleton as executive secretary in the Endowment Office at Montana State University, Missoula, has been announced by President Carl McFarland.

The Endowment Foundation is a nonprofit corporation established under the laws of Montana to receive, invest, and disburse gift funds for the benefit of the University, for the development of facilities, scholarships, and kindred purposes. As executive secretary in the foundation office, Miss Middleton will coordinate the University's various endowment programs.

Her first assignment in this capacity is to work with the Alumni Assn., the MSU Executive Committee, and the Endowment Foundation on the Chapel fund project. A drive to raise funds for the initial construction phase of the proposed chapel and religious center at the University will get under way this fall. As no state funds can be used, the project will be entirely dependent upon money raised by private, voluntary subscription.

The Alumni Assn., through the Endowment Foundation, has undertaken to raise $50,000 for the construction of a religious center to serve students of all denominations, the first part of the project scheduled for construction. Long-term plans call for the building of the religious center, an interfaith chapel, and a main chapel.

adjacent to the MSU Lodge, at an estimated cost of $350,000. The project has been approved by the State Board of Education and the State Board of Examiners.

Miss Middleton has been on the University staff since 1952. Before assuming her new duties, she served as pre-college counselor, visiting high schools throughout Montana and participating in their College and Career Day programs. She also was assistant director of student activity facilities. Before joining the MSU staff, she taught for a year at Moore High School.

Miss Middleton received a B. A. in education from MSU. While a student at the University, she was president of the Associated Women Students and held a national office in the Intercollegian Assn. of Women Students, serving two terms as Western Regional Coordinator.

MSU HOMECOMING SLATED OCTOBER 11 and 12

Homecoming at Montana State University, slated for October 11 and 12, will feature a gridiron contest between Montana's Grizzlies and the Pioneers of Denver University on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. on Dornblaser Field.

A variety of other events are planned for the old grads, former students, and their friends who will be on the campus. A class reunion dinner on Friday will focus the spotlight on the classes of 1907 and 1932, celebrating their Golden and Silver anniversaries this year. The banquet speaker will be Dr. Josiah Moore, a 1907 alumnus, who is director of the Moore Clinical Laboratory, Chicago, Ill., and treasurer of the American Medical Assn. Another highlight of Friday's program will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen by Dr. Moore.
