- Layokat Rasulova, Persian Student Association, asked the Senate to pass their request for funds to throw an appreciation party for all of their graduating seniors.
- Patrick Rhea, MontPIRG, congratulated the elected officials and handed out flyers to the incoming senators. He stated his wish to reach out to the new senators and gave an overview of the group’s mission statement and goals.

President’s Report
a. Mountainside Chat - Royce Engstrom, University President, congratulated the Senate on a successful year, and expressed his pride for the student government at The University of Montana. He explained the main issues he wishes to focus on over the coming year, the first of which is the College of Technology building and funding. The second issue is making the faculty, staff, and students of the College of Technology feel like an integral part of the campus. Third is the focus of being cost and energy efficient. He expressed his wish to continue developing the communication between the students, faculty, and staff. The final issue is dealing with the sexual assault that is plaguing the campus. Finally, he asked the Senate to be as positive and effective of ambassadors of The University of Montana as they possibly can be.
