10-15-1957

Charles D. Parker and Louis M. Sirois to join Speech Department

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/140

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15

Dr. Charles D. Parker and Louis M. Sirois have been appointed to the staff of the Speech Department at Montana State University, Missoula, President Carl McFarland announced today.

Dr. Parker will be an assistant professor teaching speech and audiology; he will also direct the University Speech Clinic. He has been at the State University of Iowa since 1950; first as course assistant and audiology fellow, then instructor, and for the past two years as assistant professor. He received his B. A. from MSU, and M. A. and Ph. D. from the State University of Iowa.

Sirois will be a lecturer teaching courses in speech. He has taught public speaking at the University of Denver, Denver, Colo.; Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, Denver; Public Service Co. of Colorado, Denver; Gallagher School of Business, Kankakee, Ill., and the U. S. Army. He was awarded a certificate from the Guildhall School of the Drama, London, England; and B. A. and M. A. degrees from the University of Denver.

###