The Associated Students of The University of Montana
Resolution Regarding Internships
January 25, 2012
Senate Bill Number: SB28-11/12
Authored by: Jeffrey Edmunds, ASUM Vice President
Sponsored by: Asa Hohman, ASUM Senator; Richard LeCoultre and Nic McCutcheon,
Students-At-Large

Whereas, Associated Students of The University of Montana (ASUM) is comprised of students;
Whereas, ASUM is student focused;
Whereas, the current economic climate is more receptive to job applicants with internship experiences;
Whereas, there are facets of ASUM endeavors that could be aided and accomplished through the creation of student internships;
Whereas, unpaid student internships are a cost effective method to expand ASUM operations, and would provide valuable resources, knowledge, communication, and experiences for all parties involved;

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved that The Associated Students of The University of Montana supports the creation of ASUM affiliated unpaid student internships, and will look to utilize internships whenever possible.
