from the Bertian English, speculative cartography (2013), through O.Fr., Med.Lat., Grk., etc. 1: the science of charting the unchartable 2: mapping the unmappable: linguists often employ cartographie speculatif when explaining language acquisition 3: the mappa mundi of the mind 4: wondering what lies beyond the fog bank; where the trail leads; what happens if you lose sight of the coast: set sail fine fools! New continents to be discovered are, new patterns mapped amongst the stars 5: the use of projections, charts, and other scientific apparatuses to imagine non-being; chartology of phantasmorgia: child’s footprints, a network of cartographie speculatif in the snow 6: the development of the ultra-real from the real: don’t touch the floor is lava the couch is safe and the blue tiles only 7: the making of charts and maps; the charts of making and maps: the charting of maps and art 8: here there be dragons; here where I will go will map might burn or fall off world’s edge where the dragons be will I be 9: but say this tree is base so I’m safe
