ROLL CALL

DATE October 13, 1999
Chair Lamb called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m. Present: Kobos, Lamb, Kosena, Bartkiewicz, Baumgartner, Christensen, Eckert (6:05), Fowler, Haddouch, Herrick, Hopkins, Irey, Munday, Murphy, Neitzel, Peterson, Schmidt, Swan, Taddonio, Thomas, Weber and Woodall. Excused was Billington.

With no objection, the October 6 minutes were approved as written.

Public Comment
*Kate McMillan and Christiana Schweitzer expressed their disappointment over Senate’s failure to support the Living Wage Initiative. Christiana also expressed concern that College Democrats’ travel request was not considered.

The Chair recognized Eckert as present.

President’s Report
a. Kobos thanked Christensen for the use of her truck for the ASUM float for the homecoming parade and thanked all those who participated. She congratulated Kosena on being selected as homecoming king.

b. Kobos will be offering the transportation position to the candidate of choice tomorrow.

c. A meeting between Kobos and The Bookstore Manager Thornton will take place at lunch tomorrow, at which time they will discuss financial matters. Bartkiewicz will be working with Kobos on this project.

d. The Strategic Budget and Planning Committee is sending their recommendation to President Dennison for meeting $775,000 of the budget shortfall. Recommended cuts are in the following areas: President’s budget and reserve, Research and Economic Development, Academic Affairs, and Administration and Finance. No reductions were recommended for Student Services.

e. Personnel Policy 4.15E states that ASUM Senators shall “not be eligible to hold any paid position within ASUM.” Kobos asked Senators to think about how they wanted to deal with that, and Lamb suggested there be further discussion next week, to which Kobos agreed.

f. Kobos met with representatives from the Banner software suppliers. In the future, students will be able to access personal information. Also, concert ticket buyers will receive information on future concerts and will be able to purchase tickets on-line.

g. No calls have been returned on UC computer networking questions. No support from Senate will be considered until the questions are answered.

Vice President’s Report
a. The following slate of committee appointments was approved by Senate on a motion by Hopkins-Fowler: University Athletics - Reda Haddouch, Greg Sundberg; SPA - Kristina Lucerto; Board on Member Organizations - Reda Haddouch; Music Union - Chad Herrick, Belinda Munday; University Court - Sheryl Schopfer.

b. Senate class will meet from 8-10 tomorrow night in the Gallagher Executive Conference Room (3rd floor). Senators were asked to bring questions for discussion.

c. Lamb distributed materials for Senators to help them organize their notebooks.

d. Lamb thanked those who attended the ASUM Diversity Committee meeting last Thursday and encouraged others to attend future ones. He and Dean Couture recapped the meeting.

e. Lamb congratulated Kosena on being homecoming king and commended Kobos for her speech at Hopkins for the Men’s Choir performance.

f. Lamb expressed sadness at the death of Wilt Chamberlin.
