The minutes of the September 23 meeting were approved with two corrections: Public Comment - $200 should be $100; President’s Report item d. - West should be East.

Public Comment - None

President’s Report
a. (With no objection, Kelly Murphy was moved to this report from the Vice-President’s.) Kelly spoke about the homecoming schedule and asked for help with the lighting of the “M” Friday at 7 p.m.
b. Arin Burdo was introduced as the new resolution officer. She expressed her enthusiasm for the job and explained about the new mediation service, which she will coordinate.
c. SPA Director Kobos spoke about the Cooney press conference, and Kaiser showed KPAX and KECI clips, noting the emphasis they chose to put on the report. There will be an upcoming conference with Mayor Kadas. Help is needed tomorrow with a massive voter registration.
   (The Chair recognized Driscoll Murphy and Sutherland.)
d. Lobbyist Darrow circulated a legislative issues sheet and explained how we hope to contract with Butte and Dillon for lobbyist work.
   A short clip from a social security video was shown, and registration papers were circulated for interested Senators to attend the teleconference on Saturday, October 10.
f. Dialogue has started about having student access to faculty evaluations.
g. Alternatives to differentiated tuition are being discussed.
h. Kaiser encouraged Senators to attend Homecoming festivities. ASUM has been invited to walk along with the UC float.

Vice-President’s Report
a. The following slate of committee appointments was approved on a motion by Hopkins-Brown: ITPAC - Jerry Lamb; UC Board - Jerry Lamb; University Court - Tara Keniry, Kelley Hubbard.
b. Llewellyn recognized Woodall for his “cool” committee minutes.
c. Committee of Chairs will meet Tuesday, October 6, at 8:30 a.m.
d. The Alcohol Advisory Committee will be making some recommendations for Drug and Alcohol Policy changes. There will be discussion next week.
e. Llewellyn gave the history on the Center for Student Success. Kaiser withdrew his resolution last Spring for student input, due to the lack of time before school ended. The Board of Regents approved the bonding for the Lodge addition at their June meeting when V-P Hollmann cited a new funding source other than a student fee - increased Lodge rent. She stressed the importance of student representatives on the committee.
   She can see the potential for discussion on the future of the facility.
f. There will be no Senate class tomorrow night so that the Senators can enjoy the Homecoming weekend.
g. Senators were reminded that next week’s meeting would be at COT East in HB01. Hayes said any Senate notebooks left in the mailroom would be put in the file drawer. She also asked that resolutions come to her first for numbering and copying. It is preferred that she or receptionists do copying.

LEGISLATIVE ISSUES

Though by no means exhaustive, the following list reflects the major, and some of the minor, pieces of legislation that will require students' attention during the next session. Two important issues to remember during the process of researching the issues and setting priorities is that (1) we only have limited resources so we need to pick our battles well and (2) we should avoid becoming involved in issues which are not in some way connected to the representation of our constituents.

GENERAL FUND
This, of course, is the highest priority for the Montana University System. The more dollars the MUS receives in General Fund money, the easier it will be for the Regents to meet needs without increasing the cost of higher education dramatically.

MTAP
This or other financial aid programs will probably be a top priority of the Regents and of students. Obviously, the more financial aid we can provide to students the more accessible higher education will be. MTAP needs over $5.2 million dollars to be fully funded. Currently $2 million for MTAP is in the Governor's budget recommendation.

DISTANCE LEARNING
The Regents, the Commissioner and the Governor all seem hooked on the idea of distance learning. In a perfect world where money is plentiful it would be a great investment. However, as it currently stands this tends to take money away from students on campus and invest it in technology that will help students off campus.

LRBP
Distinct from funding in HB 2, the Long Range Building Program provides bonding funds to many state agencies, including the University system. We need to make sure that the $7 million matching makes it into the bill this time.

NATIVE AMERICAN FEE WAIVERS
These fee waivers came under attack last session and may well come under attack again. ASUM was very effective in defeating this legislation last time.

PARKING BILLS
Last session, the administration attempted to remove the mandatory $10 cap on parking fines. If this bill had passed then the schools would have been able to set their fines at any level they felt "appropriate." The Commissioner's Office has given us the assurance that they do not plan to push this legislation, but it may come from a campus.

HOUSING BILLS
One of the major problems in the urban areas in Montana is housing. Affordable housing and related issues affect students immensely, and while it will probably not be the top priority for student governments, it should at least be on the list. In particular, protection for students seeking to get back their damage deposits would be a good bill to push.

STUDENT FEES
Currently students do not have a substantial say in what their fees can be used for. Certainly we get a vote that goes to the Regents, but that vote is not binding. Indeed, the Regents have the authority (by statute) to bond with or cross-pledge with all student fees (including student activity fees). This statute could be amended to give students a binding vote on fees used for bonding.

RESOLUTION TO FORM AN ASUM INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY COMMITTEE

WHEREAS Information technology is becoming increasingly vital to the educational community

WHEREAS Students provide approximately $800,000 yearly in the form of the student computer user fee

WHEREAS It is important to have a standing committee to represent student interests in information technology

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED

1) The Associated Students of The University of Montana (ASUM) Senate endorses the formation of an ASUM Information Technology Committee

A Resolution in Support of Altering Campus Policy with regard to Credit Cap Appeals.

WHEREAS the current credit cap appeals policy states that "appeals should be handled through the normal campus, university, and system processes; however it is assumed that appeals will be granted only in unusual circumstances";

WHEREAS the number of appeals will dramatically increase as the credit cap decreases to 144 in the Autumn Semester of 2000;

WHEREAS the ASUM Senate recognizes the purpose behind the credit cap to monitor student progress and motivate students to actively pursue degree attainment;

WHEREAS the current appeals process is inadequate in that an appeal, by its very nature, should be a re-presentation of the facts to a neutral party; based on the wording of the current policy, an appeal examines situations with a predetermined negative scope;

WHEREAS the appeals committee is currently composed of 9 members, only three of which are UM students. The remaining 6 have been hand-picked from UM faculty and administration; this creates, in effect, an unequal distribution of decision-making power and representation;

LET IT BE RESOLVED,

(1) The Associated Students of the University of Montana advocate the rewording of the appeals policy in order to insure an objective, impartial mind set within the committee's membership.

(2) Additionally, ASUM requests that the membership of the appeals committee be increased by two students, creating an eleven member committee; this will better reflect the synergy between administration, faculty, and students at the University of Montana.
