Public Comment
*A Women’s Center representative reminded Senators of the Take Back the Night event coming soon and invited participation.
*SPA Director Darrow will be taking the transportation bill to ASUM Affairs next week for consideration.
*John Lair, a Senate candidate, said he would not be able to run for Senate if the proposed leadership class is mandatory.
*Wendy McFadden and John Wilburn from Bison Advocacy Project circulated an information sheet and encouraged Senate to make a resolution taking a stance on the bison issue.
*Pat Murphy encouraged Senators to give more consideration to the leadership class before abandoning the proposal.

President’s Report
a. Senate approved Thielman’s nomination of Truxton Rolfe as UM Productions Director.
b. A committee is being created to look at the issue of life skills classes in more detail.
c. Thielman and Brigham met with the Senate Finance and Claims Committee Monday on the issue of matching dollars for student dollars for maintenance and upgrading of classrooms. It is hoped that some of those dollars will be recaptured.
d. The University Teachers’ Union is considering extension of the four-plus-two-year pay plan agreement. See Thielman for more information on the details of the plan.

Vice-President’s Report - None

Business Manager’s Report
a. ASUM Administration requested a Special Allocation of $400 to go towards a landlord/tenant packet, with the stipulation that 200 copies will be made available solely for campus distribution. Gradnigo’s calling of the question was objected to by Milliken. A call of previous question by Shimanek-Wenz passed, and the request passed.
b. Budget and Finance will be discussing a $10,000 expenditure from Zero-Based Carryover to support recycling.
c. The Budgeting Task Force will be meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the ASUM offices. Student groups with ideas for budgeting reform are encouraged to attend.

Committee Reports
a. Krinock reported from ASUM Affairs that SB20 is still in committee, and SB25 was not passed.
b. Wenz said University Affairs is still listening to discussions regarding general education requirements. Prof. Chaloupka attended and shared information, and Dean Kriley will be at the next meeting, which will be Monday at 3:30 p.m. in UC222, for more discussion. SB23 was not discussed. A survey on Intersession will be conducted in the Lodge and Copper Commons.
c. Milliken announced that the UC has purchased D’Angelo’s Pizza. Architects working on UC third floor renovations will be here Friday and will have some dollar figures for the three proposals. Space allocation forms for the recognized group office area are available. UC Board will meet this Friday at 3:30 p.m. in UC222.

d. Luke announced that any referendums to be included on the ballot for General Elections must be passed by next Wednesday’s Senate meeting.

e. Obland reported that Board on Member Organizations has no groups up for recognition this week. The Board is working on changes to the Bylaws regarding recognition.

f. Gardner is working on a get out the vote drive for the ASUM election. Another parent mailing will be going out this on legislative matters.

Unfinished Business

a. SB20-96/97 Resolution to Amend ASUM Personnel Policy Item 4.12 - in committee.

b. SB23-96/97 Resolution to Provide Equal Opportunity Parking in the University Parking District - in committee.

c. SB25-96/97 Resolution to Add, in Article II, Section 2, Item D and Article III, Section 2, Item D in the ASUM Bylaws, a Leadership Class Requirement for ASUM Senators and Executives - didn’t pass in committee.

d. SB26-96/97 Resolution to Oppose Further Differentiation in Tuition - not assigned to committee as yet.

e. SB27-96/97 Resolution for an Efficiency Evaluation Review of ASUM Childcare’s Budget - in committee.

New Business

a. Resolution to amend Bylaws Article IV, Section 4b through 4e

b. Resolution to change absentee policy for Child Care

c. Resolution for alternative methods on bison project

d. Resolution for CRB review of the Women’s Law Caucus

e. Resolution to oppose ASCRC stand on life skills classes.

Comments

The Meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.
