The minutes of the November 17 meeting were approved as written.

Public Comment

*Jean Cornwall from Peer Advising said she would be available for questions when their Special Allocation request is discussed.
*Ron Kelly commented on and distributed a "Summary of Motions."
*Brian Spraggins and Angela Vinci of Black Student Union summarized their group’s activities.
*SPA Director Johnson said there will be a 4 p.m. rally in Helena tomorrow by those supporting more responsible government and encouraged attendance, if possible at this late date. Senators should contact him for a ride.

President’s Report

a. The legislature has recommended the full $12M cut, and there is a possibility of more.
b. A letter from Jim Lopach and John Madden announcing a National Issues Forum to be held in Spring with 25 participants was circulated. Topics for the two forums will be the $4 trillion debt and health care cost explosion, respectively.
c. A National Student Symposium will be held in Washington, D.C., next March with President Clinton as keynote speaker. See Dean Hollmann for more details. The announcement was circulated.
d. A letter from Mansfield Library Technical Services updating purchases made with ASUM’s donation of $25,000 made last Spring was circulated.

Vice-President’s Report

Comments

The meeting adjourned at 9:05 p.m.

Carol Hayes
ASUM Office Manager
Whereas the bylaws of the ASUM Senate are sufficiently vague as to make their interpretation difficult, and

Whereas the bylaws are sufficiently self-contradictory as to make their interpretation inconsistent,

Be It Resolved that the ASUM Senate does hereby direct the ASUM Affairs Committee to carefully examine the bylaws and recommend changes necessary to both clarify them and render them consistent by 2/1/94.
