FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Missoula, June (00) -- Dr. Harry K. Newburn, recently appointed president of Montana State University, will have his first contact meetings with MSU alumni and service club groups at Kalispell on Thursday, July 16, it was announced by Robert Pantzer, executive vice president of the University.

The first of two scheduled meetings for Dr. Newburn will be a joint luncheon session of the Kalispell Kiwanis, Rotary, and Lions Clubs at the Temple Tea Room at 12:15 p. m. In the evening, at 8 p. m. in the Flathead County High School, an informal meeting will be held for the general public and alumni. Dr. Newburn will speak informally.

According to the MSU alumni office, alumni in Kalispell, Libby, Whitefish, Polson, Columbia Falls, Bigfork, and adjacent areas are being invited to attend. Local arrangements are in charge of Gordon D. Rognlien, Kalispell attorney and MSU graduate.

Dr. Newburn will assume his new post at the University on July 1. From that date until September 1, he will operate as MSU president on a part-time basis while completing a report on educational matters for the Ford Foundation.
