FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Carole Colier of Havre and Michael Forney of Livingston have been named recipients of the 1959 Radio-Television Scholarships at Montana State University, it was announced by Dr. Erling S. Jorgensen, associate professor in the School of Journalism and director of the MSU Radio-TV Studios.

The scholarships in the amount of $150 each are awarded annually by the Montana Broadcasters Association to entering freshmen planning careers in broadcasting.

Miss Colier, an honor graduate of Havre High School, has been active in music, drama, and journalism. Forney, an honor graduate of Park County High School, has been active in publications, dramatic and speech activities. In 1958 he participated in the National High School Institute at Northwestern University.

Forney and Miss Colier will enter MSU this fall, Dr. Jorgensen said.
