FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Homecoming celebration for alumni of Montana State University has been set for October 30, 31, and November 1, it was announced by George Caras, president of the Missoula Alumni Chapter and Homecoming Chairman. He also reported that a 26-member committee has been established and is already functioning on advance plans to make the 1959 celebration the most outstanding event of its kind in the history of the school.

Caras made his announcement following confirmation of the Homecoming dates which were established by the Alumni Association Executive Committee at its annual meeting in Miles City. In that session John L. Delano of the Montana Physicians' Service and Montana Blue Shield, Helena, and Charles (Chalky) Miller, proprietor of Miller's Dry Goods store in Drummond, were nominated for the presidency of the MSU Alumni Association.

In other action at the meeting the Association passed a resolution extending a vote of appreciation to Dr. Gordon Castle and Robert T. Pantzer for service to the University, appointed a committee to investigate ways and means of increasing funds for the athletic program, urged the employment of a full-time Alumni secretary and extended a vote of thanks to Herbert Abel and Bruce Brown for handling meeting arrangements at Miles City.

Other nominees for Association offices include: Lloyd Callison '30, Gardiner, and Richard "Shag" Miller '47, Butte, candidates for vice president;
Paul Chumrau '39, Missoula, and Dr. Allan Mackenzie ex-'34, Lewistown, candidates for the position of three-year delegate.

Nominees for district delegates are:

District 1 (Lincoln, Flathead, Lake Counties)—Jack King '50, Columbia Falls, and Robert Stenbeck '52, Kalispell.
