Course Description
Study of the duties stage manager; as well as a detailed look at their role in the collaboration process.

Course Objectives
• To introduce the student to the fundamental skills required of a stage manager from pre­ planning through the end of the final performance; with an emphasis on current standards, practices, and technologies.
• How to (including but not limited to): analyze scripts, create paperwork, make decisions, run meetings and rehearsals, and successfully communicate with people.
• At the end of this course, students should feel confident in their skills of disseminating information, time management, communication, supervising, and using critical thinking to adapt to various production scenarios.
• Focus on the role of the Stage Manager in the collaboration process.

Attendance and Promptness
The role of the Stage Manager is steeped in time management and adhering to deadlines; the expectation is that the student will demonstrate those skills to the fullest. Class meets twice a week for 50 minutes, so your active attendance is required for the duration of every class. Active attendance is defined by being present and engaged, participating in discussions, and asking questions. One private warning will be given regarding a lack of active attendance.

Class Format
This class will be a combination of lectures, discussions, interaction with guest practitioners, hands-on exercises, demonstrations, and projects. Every class session will require outside prep work.

Special Notes
The homework and projects will require you to complete some assignments in word-processing and spreadsheet software. If you are not yet comfortable with the basics of this software, including page setup and formatting, please take the time to familiarize yourself immediately.

Show Attendance
You are required to see all three of the School of Theatre & Dance’s mainstage theatrical productions this semester, as well as Dance Up Close. Please attend these productions during their first weeks of performance so we can all have a discussion of the productions the following week in class. (DUC will be discussed at the final.) Other shows you might want to see are available MRT productions as well as others in the community.

Schedule/Texts
In the schedule, any reading assignments listed as homework pertain to The Stage Manager’s Tool Kit. Friday meetings will focus on Working Together in Theatre on a schedule determined by the group.

Practical Assignment—Meeting & Rehearsal Attendance
We are using Angels in America as the focus of this class; you are required to attend the following: one Production Meeting (Fridays 9-10am), one 1hr. segment of a Blocking Rehearsal, and one 1hr. segment of a Technical Rehearsal. There will be a practical exercise to correspond with each of the events. The sign-up schedules and guidelines for these will be issued Sep 11th.

D/T Talkbacks and A/D Responses (Reminder)
As per School of Theatre & Dance policy, BFA/MFA theatre majors are required to attend the sessions in their area of emphasis following each of the mainstage shows. The D/T-T is the Monday before the second week of performances. The A/D-R is the Monday after the show’s closing. Attendance will be taken. (Both of these feedback sessions are open; your attendance is always encouraged.)

Project 1:
Compile a Stage Manager’s Production Book for Angels in America, utilizing the skills and document templates from this class. A full set of guidelines will be issued Sep 11th. The project will be due Dec 4th. (There will be group and individual reviews of each of these elements throughout the semester; it is expected that you will revise your documents along the way.)

Final:
The final will be a test of the skills taught in this class. It will be a combination of practical exercises and short answer questions.

Note:
-MFA Directing Candidates (others as determined) are required to serve as SM or ASM for a production/practicum to be assigned by the Design/Technology Program. With this assignment, the student should sign up for THTR 572: Stage Management Practicum. The credit hours are as follows: SM theatre season production (3 cr.), ASM theatre season production or SM MRT/M production (2 cr.) - [if it is as part of this class (1 cr.)]. The course syllabus will outline the responsibilities and expectations of the Practicum.
-Any other students interested in gaining more practical experience should contact the instructor to request an assignment; production assignments are based on available slots and a student's aptitude.

Class/School Policies

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student’s time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student’s grade.

There is an inherent risk involved in many Theatre and Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk. Students with disabilities or special needs should see the instructor.

Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). “Reasonable” means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. For more information, please consult http://life.umt.edu/dss/.

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Handbook. The Handbook is available online at http://www.umt.edu/theatredance/about/handbook.
