Concurrently with the announcement of election results, Robert Pantzer, acting secretary of the Association, announced that plans for the annual University Homecoming are in an advanced stage, and details will be finalized shortly after the opening of the fall quarter. This year's Homecoming at Montana State University is scheduled for October 30, 31, and November 1. One of the highlights will be an anniversary dinner for the classes of 1909 and 1934, the "gold" and "silver" graduates of 50 and 25 years ago.

Preliminary plans for the event were outlined at meetings held on campus before the close of last spring quarter, and committees have been functioning during the summer, Pantzer said. General plans will be discussed at a meeting of the Homecoming Committee to be held the week of September 21, and at that time, final decisions will be reached on parade details and the contest to select a Homecoming queen.
