CUT LINE

Berney F. Kitt of Missoula, class of 1909, buys the first badge for Montana State University's 1959 Homecoming from future alumna Mary Dee Morrison, class of 1978. Kitt is chairman of the Golden Anniversary Class Dinner, which will be a highlight of Homecoming events scheduled for October 30 and 31 and November 1. Miss Morrison's father, Wes Morrison, holds two degrees from the University, and her mother, Jeanne Smith Morrison, is a 1957 graduate and the secretary-treasurer of the Missoula chapter of the MSU Alumni Association.

The badge will admit the wearer to such Homecoming festivities as the "Welcome to President Newburn" luncheon at the Field House before the MSU-Colorado State game Saturday and the postgame social hour at the Hotel Florence.

George Caras, president of the Missoula alumni chapter and Homecoming chairman, stressed that Homecoming is for all friends of the University, not just students and alumni. He said he hopes to see all Grizzly boosters turn out in force for the three days of fun and frolic.
